Wordsworth and Welsh Romanticism James Prothero, 2013-05-20 Popular anthologies hold that the Romantic Era in Great Britain ended promptly in 1832 and that the early Twentieth Century was the time of Modernism and the rejection of the Romantic in British letters However in Wales just the opposite was true This study traces the work of poets and novelists in Wales in the early to mid Twentieth Century who all found their poetic master to be William Wordsworth In the early part of the century W H Davies John Cowper Powys and Huw Menai a tramp a mystic novelist and a coal miner produce novels and poetry with Wordsworth as their acknowledged master By mid century Idris Davies a coal miner turned teacher R S Thomas an Anglican priest and Leslie Norris another teacher are writing in the mountainous shadow of William Wordsworth While the literary lights of London are leading the Modernist revolution in Wales the inspiration is still the English poet Wordsworth This study will illuminate this flare up of Romanticism and show the way in which Romanticism re emerges from unexpected quarters      A CHOICE OF WORDSWORTH'S VERSE. The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships. A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included. The Poetical Works of William Wordsworth William Wordsworth, 1896

Selections from the Poems of William Wordsworth William Wordsworth, 1921 Poetry in the Making Daniel Tyler, 2020-11-19 Poetry in the Making investigates the compositional practices of Victorian poets as made evident in the autograph manuscripts of their poems. Written in an accessible and stimulating style, the book offers careful readings of individual drafts, paying attention to the revisions, cancellations, interlineations, trials of rhyme and form, and sometimes the large structural changes that these documents reveal. The book shows how manuscript revisions offer insights into the creative priorities and decisions of major Victorian poets: Wordsworth, Tennyson, the Brownings, Clough, Hopkins, Christina Rossetti, Swinburne, and Yeats, and they investigate ideas of composition in the period, particularly the uneasy balance between inspiration and labour. The book testifies to the care that poets exercised at the smallest levels of their craft and demonstrates that the drafts reward an equally close attention on the part of the critic. Collectively, the chapters develop a survey of how Victorian poets experienced and understood their own creativity, setting abstract claims about inspiration and craftsmanship against their own practical experiences. The book responds to and extends a renewed interest in manuscript sources at the present time that has been stimulated in part by the increased availability of digital and facsimile editions. For a long time, scholarly interest in nineteenth-century literary manuscripts has been dominated by editorial and theoretical concerns. This book testifies to the value for criticism of poetic drafts, establishing the significance of revision and of manuscript studies for the field of Victorian poetry and for literary scholarship more generally. A Choice of Wordsworth's Verse - sel. by R.S.
