HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK - The THIRD WAY / FORCE in Theory, Practice and Politics. Core Qualities, Skills and Conducts of the Practitioner, 2023-11-10

This book is a new appearance of the author Petru Stefanoroi within The HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK Project In particular in this work the author affirms and supports the thesis according to which as in psychology and psychotherapy the idea thesis and formula Humanistic Psychology Psychotherapy as the Third Way or Force is regularly promoted and used it is the case and the time as in the field of social work to operate with the formula Humanistic Social Work The Third Way or Force in Social Work The third way in practice as a method and the third force in theory as a doctrine If in psychology and psychotherapy the third way force was established by reference to psychoanalysis and behaviorism in social work the third way is established by reference to Traditional social work and Critical social work This third way in social work is imposed in the author's opinion by prioritizing the concept of personality bringing this doctrine method and practice of social work closer to psychology and psychotherapy to humanistic psychology and psychotherapy But the author specifies in the paper that humanistic psychology and humanistic psychotherapy on the one hand and humanistic social work as theory and practice on the other hand are distinct scientific and practical fields not only by the object of intervention but also by methodology and specifics of practice The aspect is well highlighted in the way it is structured and formulated his The HUMANISTIC SOCIAL WORK Project established as an initiative with the assumed aim to enhance the effective presence of the humanistic and personalistic values theories and practices in social work which usually are stated as fundamental and essential in different programs strategies and policies but less present in fact in the specialized literature in the faculties curricula or in the practice of the professionals and services To this end the project is designed as a philosophical theoretical axiological and methodological framework a heuristic laboratory a philosophical scientific and professional forum where it can be set what might be called the theory axiology and methodology of humanistic social work The project's concept starts from the idea that humanistic social work is not however a distinctive form of social work welfare but rather an ontology epistemology that generates a reaffirmation restatement of the fundamental constitutional humanistic values of social work incorporating in the same time in a relative new coherent and unitary theory all what penetrated in social work in the last decades from humanistic psychology and psychotherapy microsociology and humanistic sociology human rights philosophy movement and especially what was established as humanistic method in the contemporary social work practice and literature The core aspect of the humanistic social work paradigm theory and practice is determined by the way mode humanistic are represented the client and professional considering the humanequalities resources of the client and professional the critical epistemological and methodological value of the this type of social work One can say that the specific theory of humanistic social work is a conglomerate of theories paradigms orientations but which have some crucial ideas as vectors the person client as personality as human being with sentiments soul desires sufferings needs of love needs of happiness and accomplishments emphasis on personality and compathetical micro community as basic resources of practice positive optimistic and appreciative expectation in practice person centered and microcommunity centered approach in evaluation and intervention concentration on the future and not on the past the human rights social justice a humanistic perspective on the practitioner and his conducts in practice A Rights-Based Preventative Approach for Psychosocial Well-being in Childhood Murli Desai,2010-09-02 Children are one of the most important phase of human development and the most important target group for social work intervention Most of the schools of human development and social work round the world have an elective course on children and some offer a concentration in this area There are plenty of textbooks on intervention with children published by Western authors focusing on useful theories and skills but mainly at the remedial level They neither use the preventative approach nor the child rights perspective which has been found useful in the developing nations The books on child rights are generally published by the United Nations Children s Fund UNICEF and other international organisations working in the field of children such as Save the Children These books focus on the useful child rights perspective but they neither integrate theories nor use the preventative approach The proposed book A Rights based Preventative Approach for Children s Psychosocial Well Being will be the first to apply the child rights perspective and the preventative approach to intervention for children s psychosocial well being It is an integration of theories with practice and teaching relevant in different parts of the world The book is divided into the following three parts Part 1 Introduction to a Rights based Preventative Approach for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Part 2 Primary Prevention for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Part 3 Secondary and Tertiary Prevention for Children s Psychosocial Well Being Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice Bradford W.
