Choices, A Novel About Choosing A Life Forrest Landry, 2005-10 Choices is an amazing collection of 75 short short stories all telling about Hugh Sutherland s daily choices He lives in the middle of the block and has to choose to go left or right each morning to get to either of two bus lines so he can go to work One frigid morning he gets hit between the eyes with the realization that if he goes left he misses all the experiences he d have had if he d gone right and vice versa He s blown away by his philosophical epiphany and sits on his front stoop freezing his tuckus off And finally he has to get up and go one way or the other The rest of the stories show his sudden awareness having a great impact on his life It s a riveting tale I wrote Choices to show how choices have far reaching effects If not one way then another it s not always just left or right And if you choose a way that you don t like then choose another The Choice Is Yours Rated R Lana's Choices Norma Treptow, 2013-05 Lana is one who faced choices from childhood right on through time as she became aged She faced the loss of a child the loss of what would have been a generous inheritance and triumph through God s intervention in her life Everyone has to make choices from the moment of rising in the morning to the hour of settling in at night Some choices are very difficult while many result in great joy The choices Lana made throughout her lifetime are encouragement for others who must make choices in their lives Lana s choices may not always have been right and you may think you would have chosen differently But as you read this story note how God weaves in and out of life according to our choices Choices

Annas,1998 This book is a passionate critique of the shallowness of choice rhetoric used to camouflage critical personal and public policy issues in contemporary debates in American medicine Our public discourse on life and death from health care to medical research and from risky behavior to assisted suicide is dominated by the market model of consumerism augmented by appeals to individual freedom In fact however in most cases there is no real choice left for individuals to make the important choices have been made by others and the illusion of choice fosters complacency Knee jerk libertarianism leads to a superficial consumer culture and life choices valued only by their monetary value Some Choice uses the cases of cloning drive through deliveries emergency medicine genetic privacy human experimentation tobacco control and physician assisted suicide among others to suggest ways in which we can break through our vapid and superficial public discourse on life and death issues and begin to engage in a public dialogue that enriches our lives and society rather than cheapens them George Annas is one of the most widely recognized names in current bioethics debates His goal in this new book is to help open a national and international dialogue that sees the search for universal human rights as valuable and international cooperation to define protect and promote them as central to life Reading Group Choices 1999 Mark Kaufman,1999 Choices Noel David,2019-02-22 To encourage her students to talk more readily in her special English classes Ingrid MacElvers choosed to speak with no exceptions to the basic rules when she beed at school and gived her students choices to do the same This novel be writed with no exceptions to the basic rules of English but with most of the direct speech in standard English After a year Ingrid s students haved to move on to regular classes and Maurice Hoare one of the grade eight English teachers doedn t accept any difference from what he regarded as correct English YeongTae Kim hated English when he beed in Korea but soon getted to enjoy it with Mrs MacElvers He beed back to hating it when he moved on to Mr Hoare s class When the differences between Maurice and Ingrid becomed obvious Neil Drummond the vice principal of the school seemed to have more sympathy for Maurice until a serious situation developed with YeongTae Mark Kang beed YeongTae s mathematics teacher in grade eight and he could understand him far more than he could understand Maurice Jon Mamjjasond beed one of Maurice s students fourteen years before and he be yet another who doedn t like him Jon goed on to become an English teacher himself but he beed appointed to a school where he finded the students difficult to manage With a wife and mother that beed also difficult he decided to quit but a chance encounter
