Choosing His Coffin The Best Stories Of Austin Clarke:

Choosing His Coffin Austin Clarke, 2003-03-04 From the author of the Giller Award winning novel The Polished Hoe comes a new collection of 20 of his best short stories Choosing His Coffin is a selection of Austin Clarke's finest work from more than 40 years of storytelling drawing on his Caribbean roots and his years in Canada These stories range in theme from growing up in West Indian society and what it means to be black in both the United States and Canada to surviving as an immigrant in a predominantly Anglo Saxon culture Clarke has become one of the most respected authors in North America and is one of Canada's national literary treasures He is a master of fictional invention The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh, 2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg, 2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates graduates and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time Drawing on current critical debates each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio cultural developments Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview ideal for students and general readers interested in the multifaceted and thriving medium of the short story in Canada The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature Andrea A. Davis, Leslie Sanders, 2024-12-09 The Routledge Handbook of Black Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive overview of the growing and increasingly significant field of Black Canadian literary studies Including historical and contemporary analysis this volume is an essential text that maps the field over the almost 200 years of its existence across a range of genres from slave narratives to prose fiction poetry theatre and dub and spoken word It presents Black Canadian literature as encompassing a diverse set of viewpoints approaches and practices touching every aspect of Canadian territory and life and as deeply influencing debates and understandings of Black peoples far beyond its borders This Handbook employs an interdisciplinary framework that incorporates literary historical geographical and cultural analysis This book comprising 32 chapters is organized into five sections that chart the literature s development into a recognizable canon trace Black literary geographies across Canada from east to west delineate the literature s various genres and expressive forms and honor the writers and thinkers who have influenced the growth of the field This volume s range of subject and plurality of perspectives provide an excellent resource for teachers researchers and students from multiple disciplines including Canadian studies and literature Caribbean studies global Black studies hemispheric studies diaspora studies history and cultural studies

Blackening Canada Paul Barrett, 2015-01-01 Focusing on the work of black diasporic writers in Canada Blackening Canada investigates the manner in which literature can transform conceptions of nation and diaspora

More Austin Clarke, 2009-09-15 At the news of her son BJ s involvement in gang crime Idora Morrison a maid at the local university collapses in her basement apartment For four days and nights she retreats into a vortex of memory pain and disappointment that becomes a riveting expos of her life as a Caribbean immigrant living abroad While she struggled to make ends meet her deadbeat husband Bertram abandoned her for a better life in New York Left alone to raise her son Idora has done her best to survive against immense odds But now that BJ has disappeared into a life of crime she recoils from his loss and is unable to get out of bed burdened by feelings of invisibility As she summons the strength to investigate her son's troubles and her own weaknesses the book quietly builds to its crescendo Eventually Idora finds her way back into the light with a courage that is both remarkable and unforgettable More zeroes in with laserlike intensity on the interior life of an extraordinary ordinary woman showcasing Clarke's skill as a writer of inimitable force Short Fiction Mark Levene, Rosemary Sullivan, 2003 Short Fiction An Anthology is a collection of 80 short stories and 2 novellas It offers a wide variety of selections from the mid 19th century to the present and includes a number of works by young and rarely anthologised authors The stories are arranged chronologically according to the date of birth of the author The introductory essay closely critiques two short stories Chekhov's The Lady with the Pet Dog from the 19th century and Carver's post World War Two story about Chekhov Errand The introduction enables the editors to demonstrate methods of critical approaches to short fiction and literature in general thereby helping students to develop their own critical abilities

The Journal of Commonwealth Literature, 2005 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature The Question Austin Clarke, 2004-02-17 By the Giller Prize winning author of The Polished Hoe A finalist for the Governor General's Award When a man and a woman meet on a summer day they begin a conversation that will change both their lives As their words weave a web of intimacy the man finds himself drawn into recollections of his childhood on an island in the Caribbean and to reflections on his life in Toronto But who is she this woman he meets at a party What is behind her dark secrets What can anyone know about another really As their relationship hurtles forward he gradually finds himself part of a strange triangle of affections until events escalate leading to the novel's dramatic final scenes The Question is a brilliant devastating foray into the mysterious and highly charged realm of relationships and colliding cultures Shouts from the Outfield Robert Edison Sandiford, 2007 Choosing His Coffin Austin Clarke, 2003-03-04 A collection of 20 short stories spanning Clarke's 40 year career drawing on his Caribbean roots as well as his years living in Canada and the United States Canadian Review of Comparative Literature, 2009 In this City Austin Clarke, 2008 In these eight masterful stories Austin Clarke has caught the sorrowful and sometimes sweet longing for a home in the heart that torments the dislocated in any big city These are private lives and intimate pains made public because the city itself is in exuberant upheaval but the rawness of the moment is always redeemed by the elegance of Clarke's prose and the innate sympathy of his eye Why We Write H. Nigel Thomas, 2006 In this volume African Canadian novelists and poets discuss the complexities of the writing experience Most of the writers interviewed here are humanists i.e. they see their work as serious depictions of the human condition admit that their works are informed by an African Canadian ontology and adhere to the notion that their books must delight and instruct These interviews therefore are valuable additions to the creative process of the individual writers Apart from identifying how the writers geographical and social origins have influenced their work the questions deliberately avoid autobiography Instead these writers respond to the exigencies of craft the manipulations of publishers the criticism of readers and the absence of a clearly identifiable market for their works Interviewed in this volume Ayanna Black Austin Clarke George Elliott Clarke Wayde Compton Afua Cooper Bernadette Dyer Cecil Foster Claire Harris Lawrence Hill Nalo Hopkinson Suzette Mayr Pamela Mordecai M NourbeSe Philip Althea Prince Robert Sandiford Quill & Quire ,2004 The Penguin Book of Canadian Short Stories Jane Urquhart,2007 This stunning collection of 60 stories over a century s worth of the best Canadian literature by an extraordinary array of our finest writers has been selected and is introduced by award winning writer Jane Urquhart Urquhart s selection includes stories by major literary figures such as Mavis Gallant Carol Shields Alistair MacLeod and Margaret Atwood and wonderful stories by younger writers including Dennis Bock Joseph Boyden and Madeleine Thien This collection is uniquely organized into five parts the immigrant experience urban life family drama fantasy and metaphor and celebrating the past The Book Review Digest ,2003
