On a Pedestal Roger Lytollis, 2021-11-04

This is a book for people who are interested in statues and for people who aren't It explores those immortalised in marble and bronze and what the rest of us think about them As Roger Lytollis travels Britain he encounters a man at Liverpool's Beatles statue convinced that Rod Stewart was in the Fab Four In Edinburgh he walks into a row over Greyfriars Bobby's nose and in Glasgow learns why the Duke of Wellington wears a traffic cone on his head London brings a controversial nude statue and some hard truths about racism Elsewhere Roger sees people dancing with Eric Morecambe finds a statue being the backdrop to a marriage proposal and everywhere he goes pigeons Always pigeons On a Pedestal is the first book to examine public statues around the nation It looks at their emergence into our culture wars the trend for portraying musicians sports stars and comedians rather than monarchs politicians and generals the amazing tales of many of those commemorated on our streets It also features interviews with sculptors including Sir Antony Gormley telling the stories behind some of our most popular modern statues Part history book part travelogue On a Pedestal brings statues to life Informative and entertaining it's a book that ultimately is more about blood than bronze
