N. Middleton, 2010-01-01 Recognizing that one third of the world's Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America the fourteen essays in Mother Tongue Theologies explore how international fiction depicts Christianity's dramatic movement South and East of Jerusalem as well as North and West Structured by geographical region this collection captures the many ways in which people around the globe receive Christianity It also celebrates postcolonial literature's diversity And it highlights non-Western authors biblical literacy addressing how and why locally rooted Christians invoke Scripture in their pursuit of personal as well as social transformation Featured authors include Fyodor Dostoevsky Constantine Cavafy Scott Cairns Chinua Achebe Madam Afua Kuma Earl Lovelace V S Reid Ernesto Cardenal Helena Parente Cunha Arundhati Roy Mary Martha Sherwood Marguerite Butler R M Ballantyne Rudyard Kipling Nora Okja Keller Amy Tan Albert Wendt and Louise Erdrich Individual essayists rightly come to different conclusions about Christianity's global character Some connect missionary work with colonialism as well as cultural imperialism for example and yet others accentuate how indigenous cultures amalgamate with Christianity's foreignness to produce mesmerizing multiple identities Differences notwithstanding Mother Tongue Theologies delves into the moral and spiritual issues that arise out of the cut and thrust of native responses to Western Christian presence and pressure Ultimately this anthology suggests the reward of listening for and to such responses particularly in literary art will be a wider and deeper discernment of the merits and demerits of post-Western Christianity especially for Christians living in the so-called post-Christian West List of Contributors Isabel Asensio Sierra Di Gan Blackburn Mini Chandran Evgenia V Cherkasova John Estes Jack A Hill J A Jackson Ellin Sterne Jimmerson Ymitri Mathison Catherine Winn Merritt Darren J N Middleton Mozella G Mitchell Sinead Moynihan J Stephen Pearson Eric J Sterling True Confucians, bold Christians Antton Egiuren Iraola, 2007-01-01 The three methods of doing mission namely conquista accommodation kenosis need to be seen not so much as historical events that took place in a particular time and space but rather as deeply engraved mind structures and personal attitudes as we confront many of the modern time issues such as mass poverty and its relationship to the churches interreligious and ecumenical dialogue relationship with Islam Catholic education in public institutions moral and ethical problems regarding the treatment of embryos for eugenic purposes issues concerning the end of life social debate on alternative lifestyles and the role of women in ecclesial institutions to mention but a few Negotiating the Christian Past in China Jifeng Liu, 2022-08-16 At the turn of the twenty-first century Xiamen's pursuit of World Heritage Site designation from UNESCO stimulated considerable interest in the city's Christian past History enthusiasts both Christian and non-Christian devoted themselves to reinterpreting the legacy of missionaries and challenged official narratives of Christianity's troubled associations with Western imperialism In this book

Jifeng Liu documents the tension that has inevitably emerged between the established official history and these popular efforts. This volume elucidates the ways in which Christianity has become an integral part of Xiamen, a Chinese city profoundly influenced by Western missionaries. Drawing on extensive interviews, locally produced histories, and observations of historical celebrations, Liu provides an intimate portrait of the people who navigate ideological issues to reconstruct a Christian past, reproduce religious histories, and redefine local power structures in the shadow of the state. Liu makes a compelling argument that a Christian past is being constructed that combines official frameworks, unofficial practices, and nostalgia into social memory, a realm of dynamic negotiation that is neither dominated by the authoritarian state nor characterized by popular resistance. In this way, Negotiating the Christian Past in China illustrates the complexities of memory and missions in shaping the city's cultural landscape, church-state dynamics, and global aspirations. This groundbreaking study assumes a perspective of globalization and localization in both the past and the present to better understand Chinese Christianity in a local, national, and global context. It will be welcomed by scholars of religious studies and world Christianity and by those interested in the church-state relationship in China.

A History of the Orthodox Church in China, Korea, and Japan Kevin Baker, 2006. This book describes the history and development of the Orthodox Church in China from its origins in 1242 A.D. Its Eastern Church forebears and its development in the other nations of North Asia, Korea, and Japan. The activities and achievements of the Orthodox Church, especially since the 17th century, have been understated in many historical studies of Christianity in China. This book details the nature and evidence of these early activities.

The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Frank Leslie Cross, Elizabeth A. Livingstone, 2005. Uniquely authoritative and wide-ranging in its scope, The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable one-volume reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church. It contains over 6,000 cross-referenced A-Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject, including theology, churches, and denominations, patristic scholarship, the Bible, the church calendar, and its organization, popes, archbishops, saints, and mystics. In this revision, innumerable small changes have been made to take into account shifts in scholarly opinion, recent developments such as the Church of England's new prayer book, Common Worship, RC canonizations, ecumenical advances, and mergers, and where possible, statistics. A number of existing articles have been rewritten to reflect new evidence or understanding, for example, the Holy Sepulchre entry, and there are a few new articles. Perhaps most significantly, a great number of the bibliographies have been updated. Established since its first appearance in 1957 as an essential resource for ordinands, clergy, and members of religious orders, ODCC is an invaluable tool for academics, teachers, and students of church history and theology, as well as for the general reader.

The War for Korea, 1945-1950 Allan Reed Millett, 2005. When the major powers sent troops to the Korean peninsula in June of 1950, it supposedly marked the start of one of the last century's bloodiest conflicts. In volume 1, Allan Millett, however, reveals that the Korean War actually began with partisan clashes two years earlier and had roots in the political history of Korea.

under Japanese rule 1910 1945 In volume 2 he shifts his focus to the twelve month period from North Korea s invasion of South Korea on June 25 1950 through the end of June 1951 the most active phase of the internationalized Korean War
