Christ in Philippine Context Douglas J. Elwood, Patricia Ling Magdamo, 1971 Christ in the Philippines Leonardo N. Mercado, 1982 Christ in Philippine Context Douglas James Elwood, Patricia Ling Magdamo, 1977 A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter, 2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus's physical bodily resurrection. Present-day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus. The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone. This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task. Even when a specific book is relevant, finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort. A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways. First, the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty-four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently. Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views: theistic e.g. Christian, Jewish, Muslim, etc., agnostic and nontheistic. The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives, allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease.

Mission in the Spirit Julie C. Ma, Wonsuk Ma, 2010 Philippine Quarterly of Culture and Society, 1973

Contextualization in the New Testament Dean Flemming, 2025-06-06 Winner of a Christianity Today Book Award. Honored as one of the Fifteen Outstanding Books for Mission Studies by International Bulletin of Missionary Research. From Cairo to Calcutta, from Cochabamba to Columbus, Christians are engaged in a conversation about how to speak and live the gospel in today's traditional, modern, and emergent cultures. The technical term for their efforts is contextualization. Missionary theorists have pondered and written on it at length. More and more, those who do theology in the West are also trying to discover new ways of communicating and embodying the gospel for an emerging postmodern culture. But few have considered in depth how the early church contextualized the gospel. And yet, the New Testament provides numerous examples. As both a cross-cultural missionary and a New Testament scholar, Dean Flemming is well-equipped to examine how the early church contextualized the gospel and to draw out lessons for today. By carefully sifting the New Testament evidence, Flemming uncovers the patterns and parameters of Paul or Mark or John as they spoke the Word on target, and he brings these to bear on our contemporary missiological task. Rich in insights and conversant with frontline thinking, this is a book that will revitalize the conversation and refresh our speaking and living the gospel in today's cultures, whether in traditional, modern, or emergent contexts. Theology in Context Dave Johnson, 2017-08-23 In this book, Dave Johnson takes a thorough look at the culture of one of the Filipino people groups with a view toward developing a contextual theology that is biblically accurate missiologically sound and culturally relevant throughout the Filipino lowlands He delves deep seeking to understand the religious worldview assumptions that underpin and drive the various religious practices and the people who are involved in them Some of the specific issues he tackles are All Saints Day and the dead returning to their gravesites Praying to Mary and the Saints Demon possession Town Fiestas Sickness and healing How people have been transformed by the power of God within their own cultural setting both in the past and present And much more Women's Movements and the Filipina ROCES, MARIA NATIVIDAD, 2012-02-29 This book is about a fundamental aspect of the feminist project in the Philippines rethinking the Filipino woman It focuses on how contemporary women's organizations have represented and refashioned the Filipina in their campaigns to improve women's status by locating her in history society and politics imagining her past present and future representing her in advocacy and identifying strategies to transform her The drive to alter the situation of women included a political aspect lobbying and changing legislation and a cultural one modifying social attitudes and women's own assessments of themselves In this work Mina Roces examines the cultural side of the feminist agenda how activists have critiqued Filipino womanhood and engaged in fashioning an alternative woman How did activists theorize the Filipina and how did they use this analysis to lobby for pro women's legislation or alter social attitudes What sort of Filipina role models did women's organizations propose and how were these new ideas disseminated to the general public What cultural strategies did activists deploy in order to gain a mass following Analyzing data from over seventy five interviews with feminist activists radio and television shows romance novels periodicals and books published by women's organizations and feminist nuns comics newsletters and personal papers Roces shows how representations of the Filipino woman have been central to debates about women's empowerment She explores the transnational character of women's activism and offers a seminal study on the important contributions of feminist Catholic nuns Women's Movements and the Filipina provides an original and passionate account of the contemporary feminist movement in the Philippines bringing to light how women's organizations have initiated change in cultural attitudes and had a significant impact on contemporary Philippine society

Models of Contextual Theology Stephen B. Bevans, 2002 Stephen B Bevans's Models of Contextual Theology has become a staple in courses on theological method and as a handbook used by missionaries and other Christians concerned with the Christian tradition's understanding of itself in relation to culture First published in 1992 and now in its seventh printing in English with translations underway into Spanish Korean and Indonesian Bevans's book is a judicious examination of what the terms contextual theology and to contextualize mean In the revised and expanded edition Bevans adds a counter cultural model to the five presented in the first edition the translation the anthropological the praxis the synthetic and the transcendental model This means that readers will be introduced to the way in which figures such as Stanley Hauerwas John Milbank Lesslie Newbigin and occasionally Pope John Paul II need to be taken into account The author's revisions also incorporate suggestions made by reviewers to enhance the clarity of the original three chapters on the nature of contextual theology and the five models Faith and Bayan Lorenzo C. Bautista, Aldrin M. Peñamora, Federico G. Villanueva, 2022-03-31 When tyrants come to power and Christians remain silent the church betrays its prophetic role in the public sphere Far from withdrawing from social political engagement Christians must grow in boldness as they embody a just righteous and godly love for their country and its people In this collection of essays Filipino evangelical theologians challenge the church's complacency in the face of oppressive regimes Addressing the specific realities of President Rodrigo Duterte's administration they draw on biblical studies political theology and ethics to provide a biblical and theological framework for Christians seeking to resist injustice in both the Philippines and beyond Faith and Bayan is an excellent resource for students and leaders seeking an Asian evangelical perspective on Christian political engagement It not only offers intellectual insight on the topic but empowers its readers to fulfill a prophetic calling to uphold democracy peace and human dignity
