Christ In The Classroom:

Christ in the Classroom, 1991 Papers from International Faith and Learning Seminars sponsored by the Institute of Christian Teaching     Christ in the Classroom Jared Dees, 2018-09-07 If the goal of catechesis is to cultivate an encounter with Christ why do religious educators spend so much time focused almost exclusively on ideas and not experiences The reason is that many have never been shown a method that inspires the heart while also instructing the mind Jared Dees creator of the popular website The Religion Teacher shows how applying the steps of lectio divina to teaching can reorient religious education toward encountering the person of Christ rather than merely sharing information about him In Christ in the Classroom Catholic author and speaker Jared Dees applies the five steps of lectio divina reading learning meditation prayer contemplation and action to the ministry of catechesis He offers teachers and catechists a practical framework for preparing lessons that broaden the focus of teaching from mostly intellectual learning to also encountering Christ in prayer reflection and action Using this method students and catechists come to know intimately the person of Christ at the same time that they are learning the tenets and traditions of the Church Dees shares stories of success and failure from his own teaching experience and he offers dozens of field tested strategies tactics and teaching methods to effectively integrate the steps of lectio divina into the classroom or other catechetical setting Outfitted with these tools both experienced and new religious educators will feel confident in their ability to teach effectively and lead their students to a life changing encounter with Jesus     Bringing Christ to the Classroom Charissa Dunn, 2018-09-13 As a Christian educator have you considered that you probably have more daily ministry opportunities than your pastor You shape the next generation in countless ways through your conduct character and conversation so how can you most effectively share this gift that God has given you Bringing Christ to the Classroom equips you to be an even more effective educator and follower of Christ through investigating scripture illuminating what Jesus did as the master teacher and integrating your discoveries into your instruction and interactions with students Author and professor Charissa Dunn shares her own journey as a Christian educator so that others called to teach can discover what Jesus did to earn the title of the master teacher applying what they learn to their positions as Christian educators Bringing Christ to the Classroom can also help you connect with Gods message on a deeper level while you pray for guidance listen to his voice and ask him for transformation God provided you with the talents abilities and experiences required to serve as an educator and he called you as an educator for such a time as this Esther 4 15 By reading and examining the Bible in a new light you will be thoroughly prepared for every good work serving both your students and God in faith     Christ in the classroom, 2008     Christ in the Classroom Arnold Burron, John Eidsmoe, 1987     Christ in the Classroom Humberto M. Hodgdon M.ED., 2018-11-21 In our nation Christian teachers are prohibited by law to share the message of salvation through Christ with their students However as highly visible members of their communities teachers have a tremendous opportunity to lead people to Christ directly or indirectly by projecting a life that honors Christ as the person at the head of their classrooms and in their interactions with other stakeholders in the school and community Christ in Your Classroom is a guide for educators who wish to honor God through their work but it also emphasizes the need for Christian integrity and consistency in all areas in one s life Hodgdon provides a candid look into his own life story and his frequent stumbles during his walk with Christ and how God inspired him the least likely of people in his own admission to create this unique manual for educators The Teacher and the Class ,1895 The Christ of the

Classroom Harvey W. Bauman,Christopher Dock Mennonite High School (Lansdale, Pa.),1973 Christians as Teachers Geoffrey Beech,2015-12-04 How does teaching Christianly differ from other forms of teaching How might a Christian teach in a biblical way some commonplace set of facts from a mandated secular curriculum This book considers what a biblical approach to teaching may involve as it emerges from a biblically grounded life and what that might look like in the classroom Rather than speaking of integration of faith and learning it starts from a foundation of Christ the Truth and Lord of all and moves to the development of a framework for classroom practice that includes a need to try to see things from God s perspective All truly Christian education is seen therefore as a profoundly biblical pursuit leading to the revelation of God To do this the book explores the underlying theology and principles out of which our education should flow These principles then allow us to examine such areas as the consideration of a Christian way to teach subjects such as geography and mathematics or even what might be distinctive about the way a Christian teacher may do something as mundane as picking up a pencil

Christians as Teachers Geoff Beech,2021-01-04 How does teaching Christianly differ from other forms of teaching How might a Christian teach a commonplace set of facts from a mandated secular curriculum in a biblical way This book considers what may be involved in a biblical approach to teaching as it emerges from a biblically grounded life and what this might look like in the classroom Rather than speaking of integration of faith and learning it begins with a foundation of Christ the Truth and Lord of all including all curriculum subjects and moves to the development of a framework for classroom practice that includes a need to try to see things from God s perspective All truly Christian education is seen therefore as a profoundly biblical pursuit leading to the revelation of God In order to demonstrate this the book explores the underlying principles out of which our education should flow These principles then allow us to consider such areas as a Christian way to teach any subject or even what might be distinctive about the way a Christian teacher may do something as mundane as picking up a pencil Christ in the Classroom Ken Poppe,2022-07 This devotional book is perfect for educators during the school year Each week a devotional that will encourage inform and inspire educators is available right at your fingertips The ABCs of Christ-Centered Teaching Patricia Palmer Dameron,2017-11-09 What s wrong with these kids You know the ones tattooed skin pierced body parts sagging pants so low their undergarments show clothing exposing lots of skin flip flops worn during winter hair the color of the rainbow and let's not forget the colorful language Can a teacher teach these kids The answer is a resounding yes Believe it or not most of them want to learn and whether or not it is exhibited through their actions what they desire most of all is structure and discipline This book was written not only out of my desire to share why I wanted to become a teacher but most importantly how my steps were divinely directed of the Lord As you read through these pages I hope you will find what I discovered God had a plan for my life and when I put my trust in Him He equipped and empowered me to become all that He desired of me What He did for me He will also do for you as stated in Romans 2:11 For there is no respect of persons with God May Demons Know Your Name Lane Jones, 2017-05-18 Could today's educators actually be teaching the students who will live through the end times described in scripture If so then what is the responsibility of schools and its educators in preparing students for this possibility It is said that a nation's schools reflect its society If this is true then our schools are turning away from God and traditional values as the nation does Could it be that our schools are unwittingly aiding in this or simply reflecting this turn How does a Christian educator function in today's environment Should they ever raise their voice How should they discipline and teach godly morals Should students even be able to tell that they are Christians Many of today's educators are deeply concerned with the lack of skills work ethics and basic knowledge that our students are entering adult life with Christian educators are gripped by the added worry over the apathy and eroding sense of morality they often witness from students Furthermore Christian educators must follow the teachings of Jesus Christ while in a secular world with the task of educating students maintaining discipline and inspiring students to seek greatness in a world that often encourages mediocrity This book examines the predicaments of Christian educators It is filled with one teacher's stories during a twenty five year span in education Lane Jones shares the strategies and philosophies that God has taught him during his time in front of a classroom in order to serve his students while serving his Lord There are several incidents in scripture where a person's godly potential was so evident that Satan or his demons asked about them by name This book challenges anyone involved in educating the young to be such a force that Satan takes notice May the demons know your name Jesus Christ in the Public School Classroom Asha Shani, 2005-09-01 The Churchman, 1915

Follow Me As I Follow Christ Cheryl Dunlop, 2000-08-01 Many children's teaching programs resemble carnivals instead of productive environments where a child can learn about Jesus Christ This is often the result of having untrained teachers teaching Sunday school Experienced Sunday school teacher Cheryl Dunlop fills this void by providing a practical teaching manual designed to ensure all those teaching Sunday school are equipped and motivated to do their best for the Lord Follow Me as I Follow Christ explores issues like how to tell a story methods of effective discipline and interacting with individual needs of children Divided into 52 weekly entries it is designed to be read along with and help in teachers class preparation

Bible-Shaped Teaching John Shortt, 2014-12-17 The Bible can and should be an environment in which we live and move and have our being an environment in which we are shaped by God in different and interrelated ways As with aspects of our physical environment we may have never noticed many elements of this spiritual environment before or may have only the vaguest sense of their influence. While we may be more familiar with certain elements we may not realize the full extent of their influence or be too preoccupied to see how they relate to form the larger whole of how we are shaped. This book looks one by one at several ways in which the Bible's environment influences us as people and in particular shapes our beliefs, attitudes, and practices as teachers in the classroom. It is concerned with helping readers to be at one and the same time faithful to our common calling as educators and faithful to the Scriptures as Christians.
