Christ Present In Faith:

Christ Present in Faith Tuomo Mannermaa, 2005 Mannermaa's revisionist work on justification in Luther's theology a notable contribution from one of the most influential Finnish scholars of Luther studies is now available in English His book opens up new interpretive questions for historical theology with striking implications for ecumenism ethics and spirituality He writes the idea of the divine life in Christ which is present in faith lies at the very center of the theology of the Reformer He argues that later Lutheran interpretation of this teaching has portrayed justification as more mechanical and forensic than Luther did underestimated the extent to which God's righteousness is also ours and obscured the radical personal transformation that Luther attributed to justification

Kyle, 2015-03-06 It is reported that there are as many as 100 billion neurons that make up the human nervous system This system is incredibly complex and yet it is a fundamental part of what makes us who we are Yet there is far more to human beings than biology Many academic disciplines study the human condition and there are many schools of thought within that study We must also appreciate that the study of human nature did not begin in contemporary times History particularly Western Christian history is full of texts that offer detailed explorations of the human condition However no consensus has yet emerged Consensus or not those working towards religious and spiritual formation are tasked with pursuing the transformation of their communities This book is an attempt to provide some of the background to support this ministerial work It seeks not only to offer a fuller understanding of some of the common views of human nature but also insights into how we might utilize this knowledge in our ministries ministries that strive towards the spiritual being and becoming of our world A Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Galatians ...
