Christa Wolfs Utopian Vision From Marxism To Feminism:

Christa Wolf's Utopian Vision Anna K. Kuhn, 1986 Romanticism Against the Tide of Modernity Michael Löwy, Robert Sayre, 2002-01-01 A translation from the French of Michael Löwy and Robert Sayre's attempt to unify discussion of the diverse manifestations of Romanticism Shifting Perspectives Dennis Tate, 2007 Tate provides a detailed account of subjective authenticity in German literature its origins in the 1930s exile debates its evolution during the GDR's lifespan and its manifestations in the work of five East German authors Brigitte Reinmann Franz Fühmann Stefan Heym Günter de Bruyn and Christa Wolf Literature and the Development of Feminist Theory Robin Truth Goodman, 2015-12-01 Literature and the Development of Feminist Theory offers an insightful look at the development of feminist theory through a literary lens Stressing the significance of feminism's origins in the European Enlightenment this book traces the literary careers of feminism's major thinkers in order to elucidate the connection of feminist theoretical production to literary work In addition to considering such well known authors as Mary Wollstonecraft Charlotte Perkins Gilman Simone de Beauvoir and Hélène Cixous this book also reflects on the lasting influence of postcolonialism liberalism and specific genres such as science fiction and modernist poetry Written by leading scholars and focusing on the literary trajectories of feminism's noted contributors Literature and the Development of Feminist Theory ultimately provides a new perspective on feminism's theoretical context bringing into view the effects of literary form on the growth of feminist thought Perspectives on Gender in Post-1945 German Literature Georgina Paul, 2009 Recent studies of German modernity have tended to approach the subject from either a uniquely masculine or uniquely feminine viewpoint In this work however Georgina Paul examines these two gendered perspectives side by side via a sequence of readings of major thematically related German literary texts by both male and female authors Impure Reason W. Daniel Wilson, Robert C. Holub, 1993 Based on the premise that the modern discourse of enlightenment and its self critique began in the eighteenth century Impure Reason provides a fresh look at the controversy through cultural social and political history confronting the often abstract theories of a dialectics of enlightenment with concrete historical studies of the Age of Enlightenment This volume brings together current research on the German Enlightenment in order to familiarize an American audience with the period that gave rise to Lessing Kant and Goethe as well as to other important figures who are practically unknown outside of German studies Leading scholars on eighteenth century German society politics literature and culture bring a uniquely American perspective to the project with critiques that generally have not been voiced in Germany Their essays which represent a wide range of attitudes toward enlightenment cover topics as varied as the debate on colonialism the difficulties of diversity the use and abuse of reading male sexuality in enlightenment self critique medicine patriarchy and heterosexuality art and social discipline disturbed mourning and the Enlightenment's flight from the body and women possessed by the devil Modern critics and defenders of enlightenment who are discussed in the essays include Horkheimer and Adorno who are themselves subjected to a genderbased critique Jurgen Habermas Jean Franvois Lyotard Manfred Frank Richard Rorty and Christa Wolf Impure Reason will interest scholars in German studies gender studies history philosophy psychology pedagogy and other fields The volume will also help introduce scholars and other interested readers outside the area of German studies to the particularly German tradition of Enlightenment critique and its status today Mimetic Desire Jeffrey Adams, Eric Williams, 1995

Reconsideration of the phenomenon of narcissism in the works of a number of important German writers This important collection of essays opens new psychological perspectives on writers such as Tieck Goethe Freud Thomas Mann Heidegger and Thomas Bernhard Psychological approaches to literature have grown rapidly in the last few decades new developments in literary psychoanalysis mirroring the reassessment of Freud in the psychoanalytic community particularly important revisions have come both from the Lacanian school and from the field of object relations and self psychology The latter studies narcissism not only as a pathological condition but as a healthy and universal aspect of all psychological reality Theorists such as Heinz Kohut have also suggested that the transformations of narcissism can be healthy and may contribute to the development of wisdom humour and creativity The articles in this volume consider the phenomenon of narcissism across a wide range of works several reflecting the current re evaluations of narcissism as a counter challenge to Freudian thought and attitudes Writing the Woman Artist Suzanne W. Jones, 2016-11-11 I mean what is a woman I assure you I do not know I do not believe that you know I do not believe that anybody can know until she has expressed herself in all the arts and professions open to human skill Virginia Woolf Professions for Women Writing The Woman Artist is a collection of essays that explores the ways in which women writers portray women painters sculptors writers and performers Surveying the works of a variety of women writers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from different ethnic national racial and economic backgrounds this book treats their revisions of the K nstlerroman and their perceptions of the relationships between muse artist and audience in other genres Suzanne W ones and her collaborators seek to understand how representations of women artists and their poetics and politics are mediated by social and historical factors including literary movements and theories of language In doing so they make an important contribution to the field of feminist scholarship and generate new ways of understanding how the dynamics of creativity intersect with the dynamics of gender Contributors to the volume are Ann Ardis Alison Booth Kathleen Brogan Lynda Bundtzen Pamela Caughie Mary DeShazer Linda Dittmar Josephine Donovan Susan Stanford Friedman Gayle Greene Linda Hunt Katherine Kearns Holly Laird Estella Lauter Z Nelly Martinez Jane Atteridge Rose Margaret Diane Stetz Renate Voris and Mara Witzling Writing The Woman Artist is a valuable new resource for scholars and students working in the fields of European and American literature and women s studies
