Christabel Pankhurst Fundamentalism And Feminism In Coalition:

Christabel Pankhurst Timothy Larsen, 2002 In this work Tim Larsen provides the first full account of this part of Christabel Pankhurst's life He thus offers both a highly original contribution to Christabel Pankhurst's biography and also a commentary on the relationship between fundamentalism and feminism His book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the Pankhursts in the history of the women's movement in women in Christian ministry or in fundamentalism in The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Britain and North America Jacket Hutchinson, Mark Hutchinson, 2018 Volume V extends the study of the Oxford History of Dissenting Protestant Traditions series into the twentieth century following the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice as these once European traditions globalized and settled down in other places The Advent of Evangelicalism Michael A. G. Haykin, Kenneth J. Stewart, 2008 Various scholars discuss the thesis put forth in David Bebbington's increasingly popular 1989 book Evangelicalism in Modern Britain A History from the 1730s to the 1980s Both Swords and Ploughshares Ineke Bockting, Linda Martz, 2015-10-13 This collection of essays examines interactions of war peace and religion in the United States a country where religious faith was and still is often deeply felt and widely held where faith has provided a set of values to uphold with fervor or to transgress in protest and where religion has been used to legitimize both armed violence and passive resistance These essays analyze the mythos of America as a place of religious freedom yet one imbued with a socially imposed civil religion and underpinned by a heavy presumption of Protestant dominance With subjects ranging from the War of Independence to the early 21st century the contributions to this volume focus on a variety of historical and chronological circumstances in order to consider what concrete tangible outcomes what artifacts were produced by the interface of war peace and religion the swords and ploughshares of the title This volume thus presents a variety of often multifaceted responses that reflect its interdisciplinary scope Some contributions refer to fine art pieces including statues paintings and murals and others to works of literature theology or public speaking Some of these interfaces were performed on stage or in film while yet others were heard on the radio or read in newspapers or journals Some of the essays gathered here concern individuals working through the meaning of armed conflict in terms of their own personal faith while others examine the impact of such conflicts on a larger scale as with whole faith communities or in the shaping of national or foreign policy The first part Communities looks at interfaces that served to structure a whole community The second Margins examines instances where the relationship between religion and war and peace has occupied a more marginal space within a faith community The final section turns this interface Outward situating it away from American soil or noting how foreign war shaped the spirituality of those returning "Women and Things, 1750?950 " MaureenDaly Goggin, 2017-07-05 In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women s social practices in relation to material culture The essays as a whole are concerned with women s complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object's life cycle from design and production to consumption use and redeployment Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning making identity formation and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women s decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians social historians literary critics rhetoricians and museum curators The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth century German silhouettes Australian aboriginal ritual practices Brittany mourning rites and Soviet era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women s history art history cultural studies museum studies anthropology cultural and social history literature rhetoric and material Out of the Mouths of Babes Thomas A.
