Christendom And Its Discontents Exclusion Persecution And Rebellion 1000 15:

Getting Along? Adam Morton, 2016-04-15 Examining the impact of the English and European Reformations on social interaction and community harmony this volume simultaneously highlights the tension and degree of accommodation amongst ordinary people when faced with religious and social upheaval Building on previous literature which has characterised the progress of the Reformation as slow and piecemeal this volume furthers our understanding of the process of negotiation at the most fundamental social and political levels in the family the household and the parish The essays further research in the field of religious toleration and social interaction in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries in both Britain and the wider European context The contributors are amongst the leading researchers in the fields of religious toleration and denominational history and their essays combine new archival research with current debates in the field Additionally the collection seeks to celebrate the career of Professor Bill Sheils Head of the Department of History at the University of York for his on going contributions to historians understanding of non conformity both Catholic and Protestant in Reformation and post Reformation England

Blasphemy in the Christian World David Nash, 2007-07-12 David Nash s new study focuses on the development of blasphemy in the Christian world Tracing the subject from the Middle Ages to the present he outlines the history of blasphemy as a concept from a species of heresy to modern understandings of it as a crime against the sacred and individual religious identity Investigating its appearance in speech literature popular publishing and the cinema he disinters the likely motives and agendas of blasphemers themselves as well as offering a glimpse of blasphemy s victims In particular he seeks to understand why this seemingly medieval offence has reappeared to become a distinctly modern presence in the West

The proceedings against the Templars in the British Isles: The translation Helen J. Nicholson, 2011 In October 1307 all the brothers of the military religious Order of the Temple in France were arrested on the instructions of King Philip IV and charged with heresy In November Pope Clement V instructed King Edward II of England to do likewise These two volumes provide the first full edition and translation of the four surviving texts of the trial proceedings that followed in Britain and Ireland Detailed introductions to each volume describe the manuscripts and how the material was compiled and arranged and discuss the course of the proceedings and the value of the evidence they contain

Religion and Politics in the Middle Ages Ludger Körntgen, Dominik Waßenhoven, 2013-01-30 The increased interest in religion as a phenomenon and its various cultural contexts is encouraging a focus on the relationship between religion and politics However the political relevance of the religious and the interdependence between political and religious spheres has always been a major area of medieval research The articles in this volume consider not only the principle inseparability of both spheres as previously established by research but also the beginnings of a differentiation and relative autonomy of religion and politics within the framework of a comparison between Germany and the United Kingdom This allows the identification of restrictions within the research traditions that are due to national histories and points to ways of overcoming these restrictions A Manual of the Writings in Middle English, 1050-1500 Modern Language Association of America. Middle English Group, 1967 Cultural Diversity in the British Middle Ages Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, 2008 The contributors to this volume seek moments of cultural admixture and heterogeneity within texts that have often been assumed to belong to a single national canon discovering moments when familiar and bounded space erupt into unexpected diversity and infinite realms Jacket Rethinking Martyrdom Teresa Okure, Jon Sobrino, Felix Wilfred, 2003 Fifteenth Century Studies, 2005 Includes a selection of papers presented at the Fifteenth Century Symposia 1977 Memory and Community in Medieval Southern Italy Charles Hilken, 2008 This study of Santa Maria del Gualdo Mazzocca a Benedictine priory and then abbey directly dependent upon the papacy offers a remarkable glimpse into the nature of monastic life in the middle ages

Mediterranean Encounters, Economic, Religious, Political, 1100-1550 David Abulafia, 2000 Abulafia in this collection of previously published essays in English Spanish and Italian focuses on the ways in which political developments and economic ones influence one another The essays consider trade between Christians and Muslims in the 12th century particularly between Spain and North Africa in the Crusader States the city of Ancona Italy and in the trade of the industrial arts Subsequent sections consider the Italians and Iberians contribution to trade in the 13th through 15th centuries the Kingdoms of Sicily and Naples with an essay on the place in these kingdoms of Jews and Muslims and the political convulsions that followed the War of the Sicilian Vespers Archivum Fratrum Praedicatorum Istituto storico domenicano (Rome, Italy), 2001 Christ Among Them Edoardo Mungliello, 2008 This essay newly interprets the rise of the individual within the Italian peninsula between 1180 and 1300 It follows the historical events and the cultural products that define the period keeping in mind that the creators were conscious of a tangible real Christ in their midst For it is the time when Jesus was known to be in the Eucharist as a carnal potentiality as well as a time when Europeans on Crusade had reached his temporal abode As Christ as neighbor became a consistent idea the relationship towards that idea became one of accommodation making subsequent worship a form of individualism The later Renaissance was as much a specific reaction to a particular understanding of Christology within the cultural sphere as it was a reawakening of Classical ideals through a new paradigm of European selfhood outside of Christianity Understood in this way the Incarnation helped to produce an action based Christianity amenable to the needs of the Roman Church The later insistence upon text and notions of personal conscience that identifies the Reformation can now be seen as a true end to the Renaissance Christian praxis which began with the excitement over Christ among them Gendered Voices Catherine M. Mooney, 1999 These studies not only illuminate the past with a fierce and probing light but also raise with nuance and power fundamental issues of interpretation and method from the Foreword by Caroline Walker Bynum Female saints mystics and visionaries have been much studied in recent years Relatively little attention has been paid however to the ways in which their experiences and voices were mediated by the men who often composed their vitae served as their editors and scribes or otherwise encouraged protected and collaborated with the women in their writing projects What strategies can be employed to discern and distinguish the voices of these high and late medieval women from those of their scribes and confessors In those rare cases where we have both the women s own writings and writings about them by their male contemporaries how do the women s self portrayals diverge from the male portrayals of them Finally to what extent are these portrayals of sanctity by the saints and their contemporaries influenced not so much by gender as by genre Catherine Mooney brings together a distinguished group of contributors who explore these and other issues as they relate to seven holy women and their male interpreters and one male saint who claims to incorporate the words of a female follower in an account of his own life Keen and Violent Remedies Michael

Papio,2000 The Novellino of Masuccio Salernitano long known for its gruesome scenes of violent humor and horror is arguably the most important collection of short stories in Italian renaissance literature after the Decameron This study the first thorough analysis of the tales in English explores the hidden literary political and cultural background of Masuccio s mordant satire It uncovers the Novellino s sources from the French fabliaux to Catalan poetry from the Bible to Boccaccio and examines the reflections of aristocratic fears in fifteenth century Naples regarding the growing mendicant movement and the Turkish threat from the East This volume closes with a new consideration of the modern theories of the grotesque and presents a convincing alternative to a Bakhtinian reading of Masuccio s classic work The Knights Templar on Trial Helen J. Nicholson,2009 By an acknowledged expert in the field this title is an account of how the Templars in Britain were found guilty of heresy despite little evidence Macmillan Encyclopedia of World Slavery Paul Finkelman,Joseph Calder Miller,1998 Covering the history of human slavery in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and the United States this volume has entries for individuals and such topics as the details of living conditions resistance and rebellion law and emancipation and theory and politics Medicine and Religion in Late Medieval Culture Ralph Drayton,2001 Architecture and the Politics of Gender in Early Modern Europe Helen Hills,2003 Many of the contributors to this volume focus on the links between women and the architecture of religion in Europe International Medieval Bibliography ,1996 Slavery and Slaving in World History: 1992-1996 Joseph Calder Miller,1999
