The color palette is dominated by warm tones like orange, red, and yellow, which are layered over cooler shades of green and blue. Christening The Dancer:

Christening the Dancer , Christening the Dancer John Amen,2003 These poems address a variety of dark issues including childhood abuse addiction mental illness and suicide The speaker plunges into his own painful history replete with allusions to familial and romantic dysfunctions as well as struggles with alcohol and drugs and in so doing invites the reader to accompany him to be both a witness and revisit the unhealed parts of his or her own life Through immersing himself in the grief that his descent facilitates the speaker initiates a process of personal integration a process of voicing and thereby acknowledging the repugnant and debilitating aspects of his story The speaker visits and submerges himself in the reality of his own darkness As a result a catharsis and powerful healing occurs By putting the spotlight on and fully divulging his wounds the speaker is in essence able to transcend and triumph over them and in turn experience a new found sense of empowerment Likewise the reader inspired to embark upon a parallel journey is led to plumb the shadowy places of his or her own story and in so doing emerge from the reading experience with a heightened sense of wholeness a deeper sense of connection to the life force at large
