Ethics after Christendom Vigen

Guroian, 2004-08-24 Ethics after Christendom proposes that the special moral challenge facing churches in post Christian societies is to center Christian ethics ecclesially while also keeping it both evangelical and catholic Siding with the diagnosis that North American Christendom has drawn to an end Vigen Guroian provides an analysis of the present cultural context in which Christian ethics must now be done discusses the role of churches after Christendom and shows through the application of ecclesial ethics to family medicine and ecology how liturgy enriches and deepens the Christian ethical vision

Romans 12 2 The Emerging Christian Minority Victor Lee Austin, Joel C. Daniels, 2019-02-07 An increase in secularization throughout the Western world has resulted in Christian communities finding themselves in a new context emerging as a minority group What does this changing landscape mean for existing Christian communities Are there biblical or historical precedents for this situation What should we expect in the future These were the issues taken up by the speakers at the 2016 conference The Emerging Christian Minority sponsored by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Contributors David Novak William T Cavanaugh Paige Hochschild David Novak Kathryn Schifferdecker Anton Vrame Joseph Small

ACT Alliance and the Refugee Crisis

Torbjörn Toll, 2024-12-18 The thesis attends to ecclesial matters of aid by analysing the ecclesiological problem of identity and meaning of ACT Alliance African churches are participating in aid and Ethiopia is a good case with its intensity of church based aid work ACT Alliance was an ecumenical initiative to act in solidarity with people in need through coordination and collaboration ACT i e Action by Churches Together expresses the churches growing together in koinonia In theory this ecclesologically informed idea was conceptualised as ecumenical diakonia Christian aid agencies may suffer a mission drift and loss of identity causing inner secularisation in the churches thus endangering Christian commitment to the poor Tensions in the study signify an ambiguity that this thesis investigates through the case of the ETH141 ACT Appeal to support South Sudanese refugees in Ethiopia in 2014 with two churches in Ethiopia shedding light on the issue The ACT forum failed to attract church funding and mobilised state funding by a consortium with a principled humanitarian approach appropriate for refugee assistance The Maedot of 1983 from the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church and the ECMY letter of 1972 from the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus supported integral human development while criticising a donor based approach based on a sense of Ethiopian ownership Christian anthropology and the gospel The ETH141 resembles an international crisis model i e relief assistance by ecumenical specialised agencies coordinating with other stakeholders without being integrated with the churches intended as intra church aid or set up for Christian mission Tensions indicate superficial conflict but deep concord between aid and church and deep conflict between exclusive humanism and the churches mission to reach every person with the gospel and life of the church

No Spiritual Investment in the World Willem Styfhals, 2019-05-15 Throughout the twentieth century German writers philosophers theologians and historians turned to Gnosticism to make sense of the modern condition While some saw this ancient Christian heresy as a way to rethink modernity most German intellectuals questioned Gnosticism s return in a contemporary setting In No Spiritual Investment in the World Willem Styfhals explores the Gnostic worldview s enigmatic place in these discourses on modernity presenting a comprehensive intellectual history of Gnosticism s role in postwar German thought Establishing the German Jewish philosopher Jacob Taubes at the nexus of the debate Styfhals traces how such figures as Hans Blumenberg Hans Jonas Eric Voegelin Odo Marquard and Gershom Scholem contended with Gnosticism and its tenets on evil and divine absence as metaphorical detours to address issues of cultural crisis nihilism and the legitimacy of the modern world These concerns he argues centered on the difficulty of spiritual engagement in a world from which the divine has withdrawn Reading Gnosticism against the backdrop of postwar German debates about secularization political theology and post secularism No Spiritual Investment in the World sheds new light on the historical contours of postwar German philosophy

Divine Healing: The Formative Years: 1830-1890 James Robinson, 2011-04-13 Divine healing is commonly practiced today throughout Christendom and plays a significant part in the advance of Christianity in Latin America Africa and Asia Such wide acceptance of the doctrine within Protestantism did not come without hesitation or controversy The prevailing view saw suffering as a divine chastening designed for growth in personal holiness and something to be faced with submission and endurance It was not until the nineteenth century that this understanding began to be seriously questioned This book details those individuals and movements that proved radical enough in their theology and practice to play a part in overturning mainstream opinion on suffering James Robinson opens up a treasury of largely unknown or forgotten material that extends our understanding of Victorian Christianity and the precursors to the Pentecostal revival that helped shape Christianity in the twentieth century The Strategy of Willow Creek Community Church Gregory A.
