We need topics and themes, prompts to get started, and a little encouragement to keep going. New writers may be wondering where to begin, daunted by a blank page and want help to transform thoughts into fiction. Even the most experienced have dry periods when ideas don't flow, or times when they appreciate a push to try something different. Patsy Collins' methods are proven to work. She's employed them at workshops where she's never failed to get her attendees from brand new and nervous to burnt out, not just writing but producing interesting scenes, snippets, and stories. Each of the daily sets of prompts in this book have been used in some way by Patsy to create her own work. She needs a lot of ideas as she's completed six novels co-written. From Story Idea to Reader, an accessible guide to writing fiction and produced twenty collections of themed short stories, averaging two dozen per book. Hundreds of her short stories have been published, mainly in women's magazines. She blogs, writes articles, wins competitions, and is always working on something new. Whether you're a new writer or a more experienced one temporarily out of ideas, have hours to fill or just five free minutes, you'll find something in this book to help get you writing every day of the year. 1,000 Creative Writing Prompts for Holidays
