Mother Who? Diane Evans, Sharon Evans, 2007-06-01 Motherhood is an amazing journey It can be rewarding exhilarating frustrating and stressful often all in the same day Motherhood doesn't come with an instruction manual that guide women through the maze of emotions challenges and choices Quite simply there is no right way to be a mum Mother Who draws upon the experience of some amazing mothers and leading experts The book provides inspiration and information about the questions and choices encountered by working mothers everywhere Mother Who reveals the personal experiences and candid insights of a wonderfully diverse group of mums From the entertainer to the sheep farmer the elite athlete to the politician the foster mother to the radio presenter their thought provoking and honest stories will provide encouragement to all mothers Their compelling stories are interspersed with practical information about issues such as support networks child care working with employers emotional and social pressures starting a business health and relationships Contributors include Governor of Queensland Quentin Bryce Senator Natasha Stott Despoja singer Kate Ceberano and athlete Nova Peris as well as other mothers in diverse occupations from foster mother to CEO of a large corporation A portion of proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to Barnardos Australia's leading children's welfare organisation Rights of the Child, Mothers and Sentencing Alice Macharia, 2021-02-22 This book draws international attention to the autonomy of the child accompanying incarcerated mothers and those they leave behind in the community despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver Adopting a child rights perspective the study explores how courts could go about sentencing mothers of young children for the commission of criminal offences whilst protecting the rights of the child as envisaged under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC Drawing on the author's experience as a sentencer in the Kenyan court and with reference to domestic regional and international law the book argues that children's rights are presently left in abeyance when their mothers are sentenced to imprisonment and that greater efforts should be made to recognize and give effect to the child's existence as an autonomous equal holder of human rights despite being dependent on the convicted caregiver It explores the application of precedence as well as the court's discretion in view of the dependent child and concludes that policy reform in this respect calls for change in attitude and approach on women and children's issues Observing that internationally most women imprisoned with their children fall beneath the custodial threshold set by law the research examines how current sentencing practices could be reformed and suggests harnessing the Power of Mercy Committee the Sentencing Guidelines and progressive practices from developed countries in protecting the child s rights by imposing non custodial sentences for the offending mothers It is concluded that in all jurisdictions strict accountability for the dependent child should be situated with the judiciary and that the same should be pronounced as a mandatory legal requirement The book will be a valuable resource for academic researchers and policy makers working in the area of international children s rights law and criminal law
