Shipwrecked Mary Alice Monroe, 2025-06-17 Jake has a new boat but when Jake Macon and Lovie go fishing the engine dies and they end up shipwrecked on a small uninhabited island far from Dewees struggling to survive while hoping for rescue

When Tradition Meets Celebration My City Links, 2025-06-02 Raja A rich amalgamation of tradition celebration and family connect Festivals and traditions have a way of rekindling memories tucked away between the folds of life experiences accumulated over the years Nothing illustrates this better than Raja the annual agrarian festival that is celebrated with great enthusiasm across Odisha Our Cover Story looks at the family bonding and emotions that the festival has traditionally been associated with We also reach out to Odias in other parts of the country and the world to get a sense of what Raja means to them In CityZen we zero in on a startup that is using technology particularly AI to ensure that quality healthcare is available in the rural areas Founder Priyadarshi Mohapatra opens up about his organisation s guiding principles and operational model in addition to plans of expansion into more underserved regions As the world prepares to mark the Pride Month in June City Lights brings you conversations with persons who identify as being part of the LGBTQIA community capturing myriad hues of struggles hopes and aspirations Operation Sindoor India s fierce response to the dastardly Pahalgam terror attack by Pakistan backed terrorists was marked by the use of armed drones for precision attacks Drones produced by a Bhubaneswar based company played a key role when it came to terrain mapping and target identification Founder Boddhisatwa Sanghapriya tells us more about it in City Tech A fast paced life particularly when it comes to working professionals in urban areas has led to a proliferation of quick delivery services for food and groceries as well as items of daily use Scratch beneath the surface however and one is exposed to the dark and troubled underbelly of these operations Read more about it in City Beat The run up to Raja invariably sees excitement build up as the Odia film industry lines up new releases for an eager audience ScreenShots brings you the lowdown on what to expect during the festive season CityFlix reviews Superboys of Malegaon a movie that is as much about celebrating films as it is about saluting the indomitable spirit of those involved in making them It is in fact an inspiring if somewhat poignant take on life itself As our reviewer puts it It s about the courage to dream even if the dream is stitched together with tape wire and undying hope Elsewhere in the edition City Literature explores the work of Japanese playwright Toshikazu Kawaguchi while City Tales continues with the series on temple tanks in Bhubaneswar

The Space of the World Nick Couldry, 2024-09-17 Over the past thirty years humanity has made a huge mistake We handed over to big tech decisions that have allowed them to build what has become our space of the world the highly artificial space of social media platforms where much of our social life now unfolds This has proved reckless and has huge social consequences The toxic effects on social life young people s mental health and political solidarity are well known but the key factor underlying all this has been missed the fact that humanity allowed business to construct our space of the world at all and then exploit it for profit In the process we ignored two millennia of political thought about the conditions under which a healthy or even a non violent politics is possible We endangered the one resource that is in desperately short supply in the face of catastrophic climate change solidarity Is human solidarity possible in a world of continuous digital connection and commercially managed platforms and what if it isn't In the first book of his trilogy Humanising the Future Nick Couldry offers a radical new vision of how to design our digital spaces so that they build rather than erode both solidarity and community This trenchant and vividly written book stresses that we cannot afford not to care for our space of the world We need to rebuild it together
