Doing Business By The Good 52 Lessons On Success Straight From The Bible:

Doing Business by the Good Book David L. Steward, Robert L. Shook, 2012-04-24 An indispensable volume that shows how to succeed in business by using the Bible and its lessons as a source of inspiration and guidance. In 1990 David L. Steward founded his company Worldwide Technology Inc on a shoestring budget and borrowed money well aware of the high risk nature of the venture he was undertaking. Despite the fact that he was a novice entrepreneur he was certain he would succeed. Steward believed intensely that God wouldn't let him down. Doing Business by the Good Book shares the inspiring lessons culled straight from the Bible that Steward used to build his privately held billion dollar company into a global information technology enterprise.

The Risk Takers Renee Martin, Don Martin, 2010-04-06 The Risk Takers is about ordinary people all with good ideas who faced daunting challenges but took a leap of faith and started their own business. The book tells the stories of the personal and professional journeys of sixteen fascinating men and women who built hugely successful multimillion dollar companies. They started with very little, opted to strike out on their own and struggled with disappointment and failure. Yet they overcame adversity and through persistence and resiliency determined their own destiny. You'll meet the founders of companies familiar to most Americans: Geek Squad, Curves, Liz Lange Maternity, Kinko's, Paul Mitchell, Spanx, Amy's Kitchen, along with nine others. Don and Renee Martin, successful entrepreneurs in their own right, personally interviewed these men and women whose inspiring stories demonstrate it's never been easy to start your own business and navigate it through all the inevitable storms to ultimate success in any economy in any era. But can be done. The personal stories in this volume remind us of what is possible when you combine an inspired business idea with faith and tenacity. It's the right book at the right time. It's time to resurrect The American Dream.

Worth Doing W. David Buschart, Ryan Tafilowski, 2025-11-25 Reimagine Your Theology of Faith and Work Conversations about faith and work often miss an important truth limitations are not a problem they re a key part of what it means to be human Work has always been part of humanity s purpose but we re no longer in the perfect Garden of Eden nor are we in the future new heavens and new earth To truly address the challenges of work we need a new theological perspective In Worth Doing David Buschart and Ryan Tafilowski embrace the realities of limitations challenging the myths of You are what you do and Do what you love Instead they propose a theology of work that affirms the goodness of human limits while addressing the realities of fallenness offering hope for those who may not find deep fulfillment in their daily jobs Buschart and Tafilowski outline a new vision of work that resonates with all workers recognizing that every job has value even when it doesn't align with idealized notions of purpose or calling By embracing this perspective people can find new ways to approach daily labor even when it doesn't feel deeply fulfilling In Worth Doing readers will Gain a theology of work that moves beyond only ideas of productivity or calling Learn how to embrace human limitations as part of God's good design Reflect on the ways work connects to broader questions of purpose and human flourishing Worth Doing invites readers to consider their limitations as valuable aspects of their vocational journey offering a thoughtful framework for addressing the complexities of work This book is particularly relevant for theologians examining the intersections of work faith and rest Christian educators and leaders in the faith and work space By moving beyond conventional theological approaches to faith and work Worth Doing presents a hopeful and theologically rich perspective on vocation that acknowledges and embraces human limitations
