The Ordeal Of Hegemony Guy Poitras, 2019-07-11 This book describes the relations between international relations theory and the realities of U S Latin American relations It attempts a reappraisal of U S power in Latin America a risky venture in times of indeterminate change and divergent thinking Guatemala, a Country Study United States. Department of the Army, 1984 Directory of Central America Organizations , 1985 The Last American Diplomat George W. Liebmann, 2012-01-27 Can John D Negroponte be described as The Last American Diplomat In a career spanning 50 years of unprecedented American global power he was the last of a dying breed of patrician diplomats devoted to public service a self effacing and ultimate insider whose prime duty was to advise guide and warn a bulwark of traditional diplomatic realism against ideologue excess Negroponte served as US ambassador to Honduras Mexico the Philippines and Iraq he was US Permanent Representative to the UN Director of National Intelligence and Deputy Secretary of State to George W Bush His was a high flying and seemingly conventional career but one full of surprises Negroponte opposed Kissinger in Vietnam supported a proxy war but opposed direct American military action against Marxists in Central America facing bitter Congress opposition in the process He swam against the floodtide of George W Bush s neocon dominated administration warning against the Iraq war as a possible new Vietnam and criticising aspects of Bush s War on Terror He disconcerted the administration by arguing that the re establishment of Iraq would take as long as five years And he was influential in international social and economic policy working for the successful re settlement of millions of refugees in Southeast Asia following the Vietnam War issuing early warnings about the scourge of AIDS in Africa and successfully launching the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA George W Liebmann s incisive account is based on personal and shared experience but it is no hagiography beyond the author s discussions with Negroponte this book is deeply researched in US state papers and includes interviews with leading actors It will provide fascinating reading for anyone interested in the inside story of American diplomacy showing personal and policy struggles and the underlying fissures present even in the world s last remaining superpower A Faustian Bargain William I Robinson, 2019-04-08 A penetrating analysis of the controversial U S role in the 1990 Nicaraguan elections the most closely monitored in history this book exposes the intervention in the electoral process of a sovereign nation by the Central Intelligence Agency the Department of State the National Endowment for Democracy and private U S based organizations Robins The Times of the Americas , 1983 The national newspaper about all of Latin America Central America Report , 1982 Effectiveness of Foreign Assistance in Central America Anna Louise Krift, 2004 Transnational Corporations in the Caribbean , 1984 The Bangladesh Journal of American Studies , 1987 Criminology as Peacemaking Harold E. Pepinsky, Richard Quinney, 1991 Criminology has traditionally been a military science a science of war The criminal element is the enemy Repression and restraint are the primary tools of criminal justice and criminologists study how to make those tools effective in the war on crime We are beginning to realize that this is a war against ourselves and one that we are losing Our inability to make peace with crime and criminals is reflected in the paucity of our daily personal relations where we live by domination and discipline where forgiveness and mercy are seen as naive surrender to victimization The essays in this volume propose peacemaking as an effective alternative to the war on crime They range from studies of the intellectual roots of the peacemaking tradition to concrete examples of peacemaking in the community with special attention to feminist peacemaking traditions and women's experience Proceedings of the Conference on "Forest Resources Crisis in the Third World," 6-8 September 1986, 1987

Marxism Today, 1983 Honduras, a Country Study James D. Rudolph, 1983 Social Development Issues, 1992
