LAWK-A-MERCY-ME!

THERE was an old woman who went to market to sell some eggs. She went to sleep on the King's Highway. A pedler came along and cut her petticoats all around about—up to her knees. She woke up all shivering and sneezing, and then she began to cry and to wonder. "Lawk-a-mercy-me! This is none of it! But if it's really me, I've got a doggie at home and he will surely know me, and he will wag his tail; and if it be not I, he will bark like everything."

When she got home it was very dark, and the doggie began to bark like everything. The poor old woman began to cry, "Lawk-a-mercy-me! This is none of it!"
