Don Jose:

The Treasure of the San José Carla Rahn Phillips, 2007-07-02 Sunk in a British ambush in 1708 the Spanish galleon San Jos was rumored to have one of the richest cargos ever lost at sea Though treasure hunters have searched for the wreck s legendary bounty no one knows exactly how much went down with the ship or exactly where it sank Here Carla Rahn Phillips confronts the legend of lost treasure with documentary records of the San Jos s final voyage and suggests that the loss of silver and gold en route to Spain paled in comparison to the loss of the six hundred men who went down with the ship

Don José, the Last Patrón José Ortiz y Pino, 1981 Four hundred years ago the pioneer men and women who first came to New Mexico were forced to make their life compatible with the earth and with their isolation The beauty that surrounded them did not sustain them but out of reverence for the land there appeared the chosen ones the curanderos who understood the medicinal uses of herbs the vejitos the old men who made folklore history and tradition and recounted it to the younger generations And from this same tradition came the Patrón a man who had the ability to channel ambition and determination and to make the land and its people yield to the law of common interest He was a protector a watcher of signs he was a code maker a fashioner of a way of life that is sadly missing in today s world He was called the Patrón by those whom he loved and who returned that love with work faith and personal devotion They called him the Patrón but they might just as well have called him the Godfather Jos Ortiz y Pino has portrayed New Mexico its characters and traditions with a sagacious wit and poignant keenness that could only have emanated from one who grew up in its midst And he has narrated for us the story of a man whose visions had no limits a man whose dedication to his goal was matched only by his sense of justice and compassion for all men Don Jos Ortiz The Last Patrón Program Ann Arbor (Mich.).
