Donatello Frederick Hartt, 1972 Donatello and the Dawn of Renaissance Art A. Victor Coonin, 2019-11-15 The Italian sculptor known as Donatello helped to forge a new kind of art one that came to define the Renaissance His work was progressive challenging and even controversial Using a variety of novel sculptural techniques and innovative interpretations Donatello uniquely depicted themes involving human sexuality violence spirituality and beauty But to really understand Donatello one needs to understand his changing world marked by the transition from Medieval to Renaissance style and to an art that was more personal and representative of the modern self Donatello was not just a man of his times he helped shape the spirit of the times he lived in and profoundly influenced those that came after In this beautifully illustrated book the first thorough biography of Donatello in twenty five years A Victor Coonin describes the full extent of Donatello's revolutionary contributions revealing how his work heralded the emergence of modern art

The New Art of the Fifteenth Century: Faith and Art in Florence and The Netherlands Shirley Neilsen Blum, 2013-09-03 A fresh look at the early Renaissance considering Florentine and Netherlandish art as a single phenomenon at once deeply spiritual and entirely new Adam and Eve are driven from the Garden of Eden into a rocky landscape their naked bodies lit by a cold sun their gestures and expressions a study in shame and anguish A serious man well attired kneels in prayer before the Virgin and Child close enough to touch them almost his furrowed brow setting off the saintly perfection of their features In fifteenth century Florence and Flanders painters were using an arsenal of new techniques including perspective anatomy and the accurate treatment of light and shade to present traditional religious subjects with an unprecedented immediacy and emotional power Their art was the product of a shared Christian culture and their patrons included not only nobles and churchmen but also the middle classes of these thriving commercial centers Shirley Neilsen Blum offers a new synthesis of this remarkable period in Western art between the refinements of the Gothic and the classicism of the High Renaissance when the mystical was made to seem real In the first part of her text Blum traces the emergence of a new naturalism in the sculpture of Claus Sluter and Donatello and then in the painting of Van Eyck and Masaccio In the second part she compares scenes from the Infancy and Passion of Christ as rendered by artists from North and South Exploring both the images themselves and the theological concepts that lie behind them she re-creates as far as possible the experience of the contemporary fifteenth century viewer Abundantly illustrated with color plates of masterworks by Fra Angelico Botticelli Rogier van der Weyden and others this thought provoking volume will appeal equally to general readers and students of art history Visualizing the Past in Italian Renaissance Art Jennifer Cochran Anderson, Douglas N.
