Air and Angels John Donne,2016-07-04

JOHN DONNE AIR AND ANGELS SELECTED POEMS A selection of the finest poems by British poet John Donne John Donne was Robert Graves said a Muse poet a poetwho wrote passionately of the Muse It is easy to see Donne as a love poet in the tradition of love poets such as Bernard deVentadour Dante Alighieri Francesco Petrararch and Torquato Tasso Donne has written his fair share of lovepoems There are the bawdy allusions to the phallus in TheFlea while The Comparison parodies the adoration poem with references to the sweat drops of my mistress breast Like William Shakespeare in his parody sonnet my mistress eyes are nothing like the sun Donne sends up the Petrarchan and courtly love genre with gross comparisons Like spermatic issue of ripe menstruous boils In The Bait there is the archetypal Renaissance opening line Come live with me and be my love as used by Christopher Marlowe and William Shakespeare among others And there is the complex ambivalent eroticism of The Extasie a much celebrated love poem and the 19th Elegy where features Donne s famous couplet Licence my roving hands and let them go Before behind between above below The Songs and Sonnets of John Donne celebrate the many emotions of love feelings that are so familiar in love poetry from Sappho to Adrienne Rich Donne does not quite cover every emotion of love but a good deal of them In The Canonization we find the age old Neo platonian belief that two can become as one we two being one or we shall Be one he writes in Lovers Infiniteness a common belief in love poetry John Donne s love poetry like nearly all love poetry self reflexive Although he would ne er parted be as he writes in Song Sweetest love I do not go he knows that love poetry comes out of loss The beloved woman is not there so art takes her place The Songs and Sonnets arise from loss loss of love they take the place of love For if he were clasping his beloved in those feverish embraces as described in The Extasie and Elegy he would not obviously bother with poetry Love poetry has this ambivalent difficult relationship with love The poem is not love and is no real substitute for it And writing of love exacerbates the pain and the insecurity of the experience of love With an introduction and bibliography Illustrated with new pictures The text has been
