

A close-up of a cartoon character with a distressed expression, overlaid with the text "DON'T LOOK AT ME". The character has a large, pale face with a wide, open mouth showing a dark interior. Their eyes are wide and staring, with one eye looking directly forward and the other slightly to the side. The character has dark, wavy hair. The background is dark and indistinct, with some faint, stylized shapes that could be interpreted as architectural elements like spires or trees. The overall tone is dramatic and intense.

Dont Look At Me Like That:

Don't Look at Me Like That Diana Athill,2023-08-15 A candid novel of love betrayal and friendship about a young woman who breaks with her peers moves to London and begins a shocking affair When I was at school I used to think that everyone disliked me and it wasn't far from true confesses Meg Bailey at the start of Don't Look at Me Like That Coming of age in the mid 1940s Meg finds herself to be out of place wherever she finds herself She is a nonbeliever in her father's parsonage an artistic dreamer at her stuffy boarding school a provincial in the worldly circles frequented by her best friend Roxane and Dick Roxane's future husband It is only when Meg newly graduated from art school moves into an untidy London rooming house alive with the sounds of crying children sparring lovers and even foreigners that she begins to feel at home But ties to the past are not so easily severed and Meg must disentangle herself from her troubled intimacy with Roxane and Dick before she can begin to start living in her own way Don't Look at Me Like That is the only novel by the famed memoirist and editor Diana Athill who died in 2019 at the age of one hundred and one At once clear-eyed and compassionate it is a story of making mistakes and making a life
