

What are the benefits of remote working?

Remote work took off during the lockdowns and has plenty of advantages as a new way of working, for both people and the planet.

Less Commuting, Less Polluting

98% of a worker's carbon footprint is from commuting and working from home could save 3 million tonnes of carbon a year.

Energy Efficiency

1.8% of the country's total energy could be reduced by working from home, while eliminating draining commute time for workers.

Breaking Borders

Remote work helps employers access a pool of global talent, helped by new technology to manage distant employees with ease.

Did you know?

Working from Home Increases Productivity by 13%.

This increase in performance was attributed to a quieter, more convenient working environment.

Employees save time, leaving more space for their personal and professional life - they're happier, healthier, and less stressed.

A better balance of home and work life.

Covid-19 Management and Responses René Pellissier,2023-04-06 When the Cape Higher Education Consortium CHEC South Africa decided to develop a book on Covid 19 management and responses higher education was in the midst of its endeavours to manage how we respond to this threat to ensure academic continuity and integrity Universities mostly followed their own strategies and initiatives reactively having little time to be proactive At this point most higher education institutions have steadied their approaches to teaching and learning and to managing their university services in response to the threat There is clear evidence that the world as we knew it and in which our practices had been developed has changed and will continue to do so with increasing threats and demands on our higher education systems This book provides the collaborative approaches from a range of academic practitioners and managers to develop some mental model of the practices we adopted and possible lessons learnt in the process
