Doing Business With Latvia:

Doing Business with Latvia Marat Terterov, Jonathan Reuvid, 2005 Originally published in the pre EU accession period this E Book edition of Doing Business with Latvia has been updated to take account of the post accession changes to the legal and fiscal environment It remains a definitive appraisal of the economic system and investment climate including an examination of the legal structure and business regulation information on the financial sector and unique best practice on all aspects of trading with and investing in Latvia Latvia is considered one of the most successful transitional economies in the former Soviet Union The guide also provides an overview of key sectors of trade and investment Latvia Doing Business for Everyone Guide - Practical Information and Contacts IBP USA, 2012-01-01 Business in Latvia for Everyone Practical Information and Contacts for Success Doing Business 2013 World Bank, International Finance Corporation, 2012-10-23 Comparing business regulations for domestic firms in 185 economies Business Opportunities in Latvia U. S. Department U.S. Department of Commerce, 2014-09-09 Latvia is a small nation with a dynamic though recently troubled economy and a stable political environment Latvia is similar in size to North Carolina with a population of approximately 2.25 million The country provides an attractive market for American IT equipment and services capital machinery and equipment medical and consumer products and energy products Located at the center of the three Baltic States Latvia is a member of the European Union EU and provides a strategic location as a commercial financial and transportation hub for the Nordic Baltic region The commercial environment is generally friendly to foreign companies and EU directives are implemented and observed There are no controls on import export or the use and conversion of foreign currencies which facilitates investment and repatriation of profits The Latvian government has adopted modern laws establishing copyrights patents and trademarks and the means for enforcing their protection Telecommunication services are modern and the real estate market provides both modern housing and business venues English is widely spoken in government and business Many U S companies doing business in Latvia rate the business environment among the best in Central and Eastern Europe The legal system tax structures and trade and other regulations have been significantly modified to harmonize them with EU standards Most EU directives have been incorporated into the Latvian legislative system Latvia has been a member of the WTO since 1999 The country joined the EU and NATO in 2004 Doing Business in Latvia Canada. Embassy (Latvia), 1994 Doing Business in Emerging Europe F. Lhabitant, Y. Zoubir, 2003-03-13 The transformation which is unfolding in emerging European countries is a unique historic event In several countries the transition has been quite positive most analysts anticipate continued real growth in the coming years While opportunities in that region are numerous doing business may prove as in any other foreign country quite complex Doing Business in Emerging Europe is a user friendly guide to doing business in Belarus Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania Slovak Republic Slovenia and Ukraine constitute a chapter Brief overviews of Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Cyprus Macedonia and Serbia Yugoslavia are also included Doing Business

2012 World Bank, World Bank Group, 2011-10-18 Ninth in a series of annual reports comparing business regulations in 183 economies Doing Business 2012 measures regulations affecting 11 areas of everyday business activity starting a business dealing with construction permits employing workers registering property getting credit protecting investors paying taxes trading across borders enforcing contracts closing a business getting electricity The report updates all indicators as of June 1 2011 ranks countries on their overall ease of doing business and analyzes reforms to business regulation identifying which countries are strengthening their business environment the most Doing Business 2012 includes a new set of indicators on the time steps and cost for a private business to get an electricity connection The data on connection services can inform utilities regulators and governments seeking to strengthen the performance of the electricity sector Drawing on a now longer time series this year's report introduces a measure to illustrate how the regulatory environment for business has changed in each economy since Doing Business 2006 was published in 2005 A new distance to frontier measure complements the aggregate ranking on the ease of doing business which benchmarks each economy's current performance on the indicators against that of all other economies in the sample for a given year A fundamental premise of Doing Business is that economic activity requires good rules that are transparent and accessible to all Such regulations should be efficient striking a balance between safeguarding some important aspects of the business environment and avoiding distortions that impose unreasonable costs on businesses Where business regulation is burdensome and competition limited success depends more on whom you know than on what you can do But where regulations are relatively easy to comply with and accessible to all who need to use them anyone with talent and a good idea should be able to start and grow a business in the formal sector The Doing Business report which was started in 2003 has become one of the key ways in which the bank and other observers gauge business climate within developing countries The Financial Times Doing Business started as a way to encourage countries to reduce obstacles to entrepreneurship Developing countries compete to land a spot on the top 10 list of most improving countries because it is seen as a way to get attention and investment The Wall Street Journal Doing Business has succeeded in putting the issue of business red tape on the international political agenda The Economist Doing Business 2014 World Bank, 2013-10-01 Eleventh in a series of annual reports comparing business regulations in 189 economies Doing Business 2014 measures regulations affecting 11 areas of everyday business activity around the world Doing Business in the Baltic States Richard Abbott, 1993 Among the vast market opportunities now open to UK business in Eastern Europe the Baltic States present one of the richest However without a basic level of knowledge of business practice in these countries establishing even basic communication links prior to attempting business negotiations will prove time consuming expensive and frustrating Legal Aspects of Doing Business in Latvia Philip S. Thorsen, Hans Peter Grønberg-Pedersen, Sorainen Law Offices. Riga Office, Denmark. Danmarks Eksportråd, Denmark (Letland).
