Gallegos, Annette Henry, Mary Bushnell Greiner, Paula Groves Price, 2011-07-05 This groundbreaking volume helps readers understand the history evolution and significance of this wide ranging often misunderstood and increasingly important field of study Doing Women's Studies Gabriele Griffin, 2013-07-04 With the expansion of the EU in 2004 and its inclusion now of 25 European countries the movement of workers across the Continent will affect the employment opportunities of women But as this up to date investigation across nine countries shows there remain significant differences amongst specific European countries regarding women s education and employment opportunities Taking 1945 as its historical starting point this sociological study based on some 900 questionnaire responses and more than 300 in depth interviews explores the complex inter relationship between women s employment the institutionalization of equal opportunities and Women s Studies training This volume is the first to explore what happens to women who have undertaken Women s Studies training in the labour market Factors influencing their actual employment experiences include employment opportunities for women in each country their expectations of the labour market and gender norms informing those expectations how far equal opportunities are actually enforced and the strength of local women s movements Doing Women s Studies provides unique information about and insightful analyses of the changing patterns of women s employment in Europe equal opportunities in a cross European perspective educational migration gender race ethnicity and nationality and the uneven prevalence and impact of Women s Studies on the lifestyles and everyday practices of those women who have experienced it The contributors are prominent feminist researchers from nine European countries Their findings will be of interest to sociologists and gender studies experts working in the areas of gender employment equal opportunities and the impact of education on employment

Women Studies Abstracts ,2001 Researchers at Risk Deborah L. Mulligan,Patrick Alan Danaher,2021-01-04 This book explores the phenomenon of researchers at risk that is the experiences of scholars whose research topics require them to engage with diverse kind of dangers uncertainties or vulnerabilities This risk may derive from working with variously marginalised individuals or groups or from being members of such groups themselves At other times the risk relates to particular economic or environmental conditions or political forces influencing the specific research fields in which they operate This book argues for the need to reconceptualise and thereby to reimagine the phenomenon of researchers risks particularly when those risks are perceived to affect and even to threaten the researchers Drawing on a diverse and global range case studies including Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Bal chist n Cyprus and Germany the chapters call for the need to identify effective strategies for engaging proactively with these risks to address precarity jeopardy and uncertainty

Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian,2003 Feminist Politics, Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda,2025-02-11 In Feminist Politics Intersectionality and Knowledge Cultivation Radhika Govinda engages with intersectionality as critical theory as critical methodology and as critical pedagogy to make sense of feminist politics in India and beyond and knowledge making on feminist politics as such In doing so she makes a case for theory making conducting empirical research and classroom teaching to be understood as integral parts of knowledge cultivation each feeding into the other Differently put the book encapsulates Govinda s engagement spanning fifteen years and four case studies exploring what insights an intersectional lens throws up and how these insights complicate our understandings of marginality privilege and solidarity in the field of women's and gender studies in feminist classrooms in women's and social movements in particular NGO led feminist activism state led development initiatives and digital feminist campaigns and in everyday social relations in rural and urban spaces Uncovering interrogating and disrupting the politics of coloniality and feminist complicity is an important running thread in the book Through a reflexive account of her own location and practice in the academy at the cusp of the global north and the global south Govinda highlights the importance of being attentive to intersectional positionality and to the contextual specificities of engaging in feminist politics and knowledge making in the age of global neoliberalism Feminist Periodicals, 1999
