Doing Theology In New Places:

Doing Theology in New Places Jean Pierre Jossua, Johannes Baptist Metz, 1979      Doing Theology in the New Normal Jione Havea, 2021-07-30 Responses to the recent pandemic have been driven by fear with social distancing and locking down of communities and borders as the most effective tactics Out of fear and strategies that separate and isolate emerges what has been described as the new normal which seems to mutate daily Truly global in scope with contributors from across the world this collection revisits four old responses to crises assure protest trick amend to explore if how those might still be relevant and effective and or how they might be mutated during and after a global pandemic Together they paint a grounded earthy context focused picture of what it means to do theology in the new normal      Studying Local Churches Helen Cameron, Philip J. Richter, Douglas Davies, 2005-03-31 This practical handbook aimed at final year undergraduates Masters level students student ministers church leaders and policy makers interested in local faith communities guides readers through the various tools methods of analysis and research skills needed for studying local churches This resource takes full account of the UK context and is an ideal basis for students undertaking research projects and dissertations After an historical overview the handbook identifies theoretical foundations for the study of local churches drawing on the 4 disciplines of anthropology sociology organisational studies and theology Guidance is provided on both quantitative and qualitative research methods Research processes covered include such issues as selecting a church gaining access selecting methods analysing data maintaining confidentiality research reflexivity and completing the final report There is also a critical review of existing literature as well as case studies and worked examples demonstrating how key concepts from the 4 disciplines apply to actual local churches The handbook contains a wide range of contributors with extensive theoretical and practical experience of studying local churches      Constructing Constructive Theology Jason A. Wyman Jr. , 2017-07-15 To date constructive theology hasn t been viewed or conceptualized as a movement or trend in theology on its own as a whole Questions arise as to what constructive theology is where it came from why it considers itself constructive and why constructive is something different from the ways in which theology has been done in the past This book traces the overall historical arc of constructive theology from proto movement through the present Inklings of constructive theology emerged well before it began to take any formalized shape At the same time an important shift occurred when a group of theologians decided to create the Workgroup on Constructive Theology Further even as the workgroup continues to work collectively producing textbooks statements and methodologies concerning theology many theologians who are not part of the workgroup or may not even know it exists have adopted the moniker of constructive theologian The book also considers the term constructive itself offering possible reasons and historical contexts that led to this distinction being made in contrast to systematic theology and its subcategories Constructive theology speaks to a very specific historically situated emergence in the academy generally and in theology s attempts to engage those shifts specifically Out of Place Jione Havea, Clive Pearson, 2016-04-08 Place shapes human identity and community Arguing that theologies are shaped by place so no theology can be universal Out of Place assesses the ways in which theology as a discipline and a practice is out of place Departing from dominant theological discourse the book argues that for theology to be transformative it must connect with place and engage with marginalised peoples and cultures Ranging across Asian American theology to Tamils in the London diaspora Australian Pentecostalism to HIV and AIDS sufferers Out of Place will be of invaluable to scholars and students of sociology and religion interested in the intersection of theology and locality

Pacific Well-Being Jione Havea, 2024-03-29 This book makes space 1 for Pasifika contributions to academic conversations on critical topics and 2 for influencing the conversations to account for and thus reflect Pasifika ways and modes The critical topic that runs through the chapters is well being and the contributors were located at the time of writing in Pasifika Aotearoa Fiji Kioa Kiribati Samoa Tonga and Tuvalu but there are many more Pasifika voices and concerns than are represented in this work Nonetheless the ways in which this work seeks to influence the conversations on well being reflect the intersectional modes of thinking that native Pasifika Islanders share The essays are placed into three intersecting clusters well being of bodies and is lands well being of traditions and theologies and well being of imaginations and worldviews The rationale for this arrangement is that the well being of Pasifika requires attention to the present bodies and islands to the past traditions and theologies and to the future imaginations and worldviews The chapters address Pasifika questions and concerns and they are placed so that the conversations they spark can take place free of the traps of Western theories and disciplines with Pasifika accents and rhythms THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH: FAITH SEEKING
