People Power Howard Clark, 2009-08-20 Across the world nonviolent movements are at the forefront of resistance against repression imperial aggression and corporate abuse However it is often difficult for activists in other countries to know how best to assist such movements The contributors to People Power place nonviolent struggles in an international context where solidarity can play a crucial role Yet they also warn that good intentions are not enough solidarity has to listen to local movements Examining movements from Zimbabwe to Burma and Palestine the contributors assess various forms of solidarity arguing that a central role of solidarity is to strengthen the counter power of those resisting domination and Power, Resistance and Conflict in the Contemporary World Athina Karatzogianni, Andrew oppression Robinson, 2009-10-16 Examines the operation of network forms of organization in social resistance movements in relation to the integration of the world system the intersection of networks and the possibility of social transformation Multipolar World Mi You, 2025-01-22 This monograph takes a look at how the increasing multipolarity of our world affects art It is a diagnosis of the socio political contexts that surround art and questions what the upheavals in geopolitics economic and social policy mean for the field of art today The text is divided into four sections First the phenomenon is conceptualized and theorized This is followed by an in depth examination of the interrelationships using documenta fifteen as a case study an exhibition that can be seen as a crystallization point for current political shifts This is followed by an in depth reading of Chinese art policy which oscillates between particularist and universalist claims in order to arrive at the concluding section which opens up a horizon of thought and experimentation that helps us to come to terms with the era of multipolarity
