Dominican Crossroads Christina Cecelia Davidson, 2024-09-13 H C C Astwood minister and missionary diplomat and politician enigma in the annals of US history In Dominican Crossroads Christina Cecelia Davidson explores Astwood's extraordinary and complicated life and career Born in 1844 in the British Caribbean Astwood later moved to Reconstruction era New Orleans where he became a Republican activist and preacher in the African Methodist Episcopal AME Church In 1882 he became the first Black man named US consul to the Dominican Republic Davidson tracks the challenges that Astwood faced as a Black politician in an era of rampant racism and ongoing cross border debates over Black men's capacity for citizenship As a US representative and AME missionary Astwood epitomized Black masculine respectability But as Davidson shows Astwood became a duplicitous scheming figure who used deception and engaged in racist moral politics to command authority His methods Davidson demonstrates show a bleaker side of Black international politics and illustrate the varied contours of transnational moral discourse as people of all colors vied for power during the ongoing debate over Black rights in Santo Domingo and beyond Archeological and Historical Investigations in

Samaná, Dominican Republic Herbert William Krieger, 1929 Queer Genealogies in Dominican Literature and Culture Maja Horn, 2025-09-16 Tracing cultural representations of queerness in the Dominican Republic from the 1950s to the present In this book Maja Horn examines the evolution of queer Dominican literary and cultural production from the 1950s to the present challenging simplistic developmental narratives of LGBTIQ progress Through an analysis of literature theater and activism Horn traces how same sex desire and gender nonconformity have been negotiated both tacitly and overtly across the years Beginning with early forerunners Horn looks at literary representations in works by Hilma Contreras and Pedro René Contón Aybar during the 1930-1961 dictatorship of Rafael Trujillo Horn goes on to explore the emergence of queer nightlife spaces during the Balaguer years through novels by Rita Indiana Hernández and Rey Emmanuél Andjar Horn discusses how the work of playwright Waddys J. Quez challenges reductive mainstream representations of trans subjects and HIV/AIDS in the new democratic era The book concludes with a discussion of groundbreaking recent texts that have expanded portrayals beyond Santo Domingo and introduced new perspectives Throughout Queer Genealogies in Dominican Literature and Culture Horn shows how class race and gender have shaped access to public space and strategies for negotiating sexuality Horn also reveals the coexistence of different ways of expressing queer identities Recognizing the influence of coloniality and narratives of identity in the global North Horn celebrates the shifting geographies and multiplicities of a uniquely creole Dominican queerness
