Timothy J. Lomperis

Dommen Finnish:

From People's War to People's Rule Timothy J. Lomperis, 2000-11-09 Timothy Lomperis persuasively argues the ironic point that the lessons of American involvement in Vietnam are not to be found in any analysis of the war by itself. Rather, he proposes a comparison of the Vietnam experience with seven other cases of Western intervention in communist insurgencies during the Cold War era: China, Indochina, Greece, the Philippines, Malaya, Cambodia, and Laos. Lomperis maintains that popular insurgencies are manifestations of crises in political legitimacy which occur as a result of the societal stresses caused by modernization. Therefore, he argues, any intervention in a people's war will succeed or fail depending on how it affects this crisis. The unifying theme in the cases Lomperis discusses is the power of land reform and electoral democracy to cement political legitimacy and therefore deflect revolutionary movements. Applying this theory to the ongoing Sendero Luminoso insurgency in Peru, Lomperis makes a qualified prediction of that conflict's outcome. He concludes that a global trend toward democratization has produced a new era of people's rule.

Indigenous Rights in Scandinavia Christina Allard, Susann Funderud Skogvang, 2016-05-23 This book contributes to the international debate on Indigenous Peoples' Law, containing both in-depth research of Scandinavian historical and legal contexts with respect to the Sami and demonstrating current stances in Sami Law research. In addition to chapters by well-known Scandinavian experts, the collection also comments on the legal situation in Norway, Sweden, and Finland in relation to other jurisdictions and indigenous peoples in particular, with experiences and developments in Canada and New Zealand. The book displays the current research frontier among the Scandinavian countries, what the present-day issues are, and how the nation-states have responded so far to claims of Sami rights. The study sheds light on the contrasts between the three countries on the one hand and between Scandinavia, Canada, and New Zealand on the other, showing that although there are obvious differences for instance related to colonisation and present legal solutions, there are also shared experiences among the indigenous peoples and the States. Filling a gap in an under-researched area of Sami rights, this book will be a valuable resource for academics, researchers, and policy makers with an interest in Indigenous Peoples' Law and comparative research.

Neutral Europe and the Creation of the Nonproliferation Regime Pascal Lottaz, Yoko Iwama, 2023-11-03 Lottaz, Iwama, and their contributors investigate the role of neutral and nonaligned European states during the negotiations for the Treaty on the Nonproliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT). Focusing on the years from the Irish Resolution of 1958 until the treaty's opening for signatures ten years later the nine chapters written by area experts highlight the processes and reasons for the political and diplomatic actions the neutrals took and how those impacted the multilateral treaty negotiations The book reveals new aspects of the dynamics that lead to this most consequential multilateral breakthrough of the Cold War In part one three chapters analyze the international system from a bird's eye perspective discussing neutrality nonalignment and the nuclear order The second part features six detailed case studies on the politics and diplomacy of Ireland Sweden Finland Switzerland Austria and Yugoslavia Overall this study suggests that despite the volatile and dangerous nature of the early Cold War the balance of the strategic environment enabled actors that were not part of one or the other alliance system to play a role in the interlocking global politics that finally created the nuclear regime that defines international relations until today A valuable resource for scholars of nonproliferation the Cold War neutrality nonalignment and area studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
