Donald Duk:

Donald Duk Frank Chin,1991 On the eve of the Chinese New Year in San Francisco s Chinatown twelve year old Donald Duk attempts to deal with his comical name and his feelings for his cultural heritage Donald Duk Frank Chin,1997 A Study Guide for Frank Chin's "Donald Duk" Gale, Cengage Learning,2016-06-29 A Study Guide for Frank Chin s Donald Duk excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs The Chinese and the Iron Road Gordon Chang,Shelley Fisher Fishkin,2023-05-25 Essays examining the Chinese worker experience during the construction of America s Transcontinental Railroad The completion of the transcontinental railroad in May 1869 is usually told as a story of national triumph and a key moment for American Manifest Destiny The Railroad made it possible to cross the country in a matter of days instead of months paved the way for new settlers to come out west and helped speed America s entry onto the world stage as a modern nation that spanned a full continent It also created vast wealth for its four owners including the fortune with which Leland Stanford would found Stanford University some two decades later But while the Transcontinental has often been celebrated in national memory little attention has been paid to the Chinese workers who made up 90 percent of the workforce on the Western portion of the line The Railroad could not have been built without Chinese labor but the lives of Chinese railroad workers themselves have been little understood and largely invisible This landmark volume explores the experiences of Chinese railroad workers and their place in cultural memory The Chinese and the Iron Road illuminates more fully than ever before the interconnected economies of China and the US how immigration across the Pacific changed both nations the dynamics of the racism the workers encountered the conditions under which they labored and their role in shaping both the history of the railroad and the development of the American West Praise for The Chinese and the Iron Road This timely and essential volume preserves the humanity of the often ignored and forgotten immigrant worker while also uncovering just how important Chinese American railroad workers were in the making of America and its place in the world Erika Lee author of The Making of Asian America Gordon H Chang and Shelley Fisher Fishkin s meticulously researched and beautifully written book fills a critical gap in our nation s history The Chinese and the Iron Road brings to life the stories of workers who defied incredible odds and gave their lives to unite these states into a nation David Henry Hwang Tony Award winning playwright of The Dance and the Railroad and M Butterfly Destined to become the go to resource about Chinese railroad workers in the American West Madeline Hsu author of The Good Immigrants How the Yellow Peril Became the Model Minority Deeply researched and richly detailed The Chinese and the Iron Road brings to life the Chinese immigrants whose work was essential to the railroad s construction Thomas Bender author of A Nation Among Nations America s Place in World History Racial Castration David L. Eng,2001-03-20 A psychoanalytic study that argues for the centrality of sexuality in the construction of Asian American identity and of racial identity in general      San Francisco in Fiction David M. Fine, Paul Skenazy, 1995 In the beginning there was the bay the land the forty three hills the coastline down to Monterey the strip of mountains the quiet valley behind the vast ocean the hidden faults And with the landscape came the stories as Paul Skenazy and David Fine note in their introduction to this new anthology of essays San Francisco is as much a place in the mind as on the map if the terrain set the stage for the stories the stories have helped remake our perceptions of the space These twelve essays explore the relationship between place and prose between San Francisco the city and San Francisco the territory of fiction From the Gold Rush times of Mark Twain and Bret Harte through the Prohibition Era of Dashiell Hammett to the Beat days of Jack Kerouac and the present works of writers like Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan and Arturo Islas San Francisco has been blessed with great writers who have given life to the land in their fiction These essays engage the history and geography ethnic gender and class conflicts and stylistic range of the fiction They demonstrate how authors as various as Jack London Gertrude Atherton Frank Norris William Saroyan James D Houston Joan Didion and Wallace Stegner have re created and revised our understanding of this region      Consumption and Identity in Asian American Coming-of-age Novels Jennifer Ann Ho, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Race & Resistance Viet Thanh Nguyen, 2002 Viet Nguyen argues that Asian American intellectuals need to examine their own assumptions about race culture and politics and makes his case through the example of literature      Eating Identities Wenying Xu, 2007-11-13 The French epicure and gastronome Brillat Savarin declared Tell me what you eat and I will tell you who you are Wenying Xu infuses this notion with cultural political energy by extending it to an ethnic group known for its cuisines Asian Americans She begins with the general argument that eating is a means of becoming not simply in the sense of nourishment but more importantly of what we choose to eat what we can afford to eat what we secretly crave but are ashamed to eat in front of others and how we eat Food as the most significant medium of traffic between the inside and outside of our bodies organizes signifies and legitimates our sense of self and distinguishes us from others who practice different foodways Narrowing her scope Xu reveals how cooking eating and food fashion Asian American identities in terms of race ethnicity gender class diaspora and sexuality She provides lucid and informed interpretations of seven Asian American writers John Okada Joy Kogawa Frank Chin Li Young Lee David Wong Louie Mei Ng and Monique Truong and places these identity issues in the fascinating spaces of food hunger consumption appetite desire and orality Asian American literature abounds in culinary metaphors and references but few scholars have made sense of them in a meaningful way Most literary critics perceive alimentary references as narrative strategies or part of the background Xu takes food as the central site of cultural and political struggles waged in the seemingly private domain of desire in the lives of Asian Americans Eating Identities is the first book to link food to a wide range of Asian American concerns such as race and sexuality Unlike most sociological studies which center on empirical analyses of the relationship between food and society it focuses on how food practices influence psychological and ontological formations and thus contributes significantly to the growing field of food studies For students of literature this tantalizing work offers an illuminating lesson on how to read the multivalent meanings of food and eating in literary texts Transforming Chinese American Literature Joan Chiung-huei Chang,2000 What is a Chinese American A Chinese An American Or both Or neither These seemingly easy questions are hard to answer in terms of history culture ethnicity and literature In order to provide an answer to these questions Chinese American writers transform a historical discourse into a historicist one to review history an intrapersonal discourse into an interpersonal one to redefine autobiography and a mythological discourse into a mythopoetical one to rewrite mythology so as to transform an American Orientalist discourse into a Chinese American one for the reading and writing of Chinese American literature As a consequence the question What is a Chinese American is transformed into an affirmation of what a Chinese American is
