Donald Campbell The Man Behind The Mask:

Donald Campbell David Tremayne, 2011-09-30 Generations are familiar with the haunting black and white television footage of Donald Campbell somersaulting to his death in his famous Bluebird boat on Coniston Water in January 1967. It has become an iconic image of the decade. His towering achievements and the drama of his passing are thus part of the national psyche. But what of the man himself? The son of the legendary Sir Malcolm Campbell, who was famous for being the ultimate record breaker of the inter-war years, he broke the land speed record nine times and the water speed record four times with his Bluebird cars and boats. Donald Campbell was born to speed. He was outgoing and flamboyant yet carefully orchestrated the image he presented to the world. Some saw him as a playboy adventurer, others such as the radio producer on the twenty-first anniversary of his death as a reckless daredevil with a death wish. He was known to take solace in extra-marital dalliances and was obsessed with spiritualism. And in his final years, battered by a 360 mph accident while attempting the land record on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah, and his prolonged and anti-climactic subsequent effort on the treacherous Lake Eyre in Australia, Campbell appeared a haggard and often frightened man. He had become trapped on his record breaker's treadmill as he continually sought to prove himself to his illustrious father, in whose long shadow he felt forever trapped. DONALD CAMPBELL THE MAN BEHIND THE MASK paints a fascinating portrait of an intense, complex, superstitious yet abnormally brave man who was driven not only by the desire to prove that he was worthy of the mantle of his father but also by his fervent and unswerving desire to keep Britain at the forefront of international speed endeavour. This book generates a unique insight into how his desperate fear of failure finally lured him into taking one risk too many.

Land Speed Records Don Wales, 2018-03-22 The Land Speed Record is a fascinating story of human endeavour of man and machine battling time to be the fastest. Since 1898 many have dreamed of being the fastest on earth, first with electric, then steam, then petrol, moving forward to the jet car and into the present and future with rocket power. The glory years of the record are studded with iconic names such as Malcolm and Donald Campbell, Henry Segrave, John Cobb, George Eyston, and more recently Craig Breedlove and Richard Noble. The next race is on for 1,000 mph with the latest British attempt by Bloodhound SSC. In this colourfully illustrated introduction, using many photographs from the Motoring Picture Library at Beaulieu, Malcolm Campbell's grandson tells of the brave drivers and powerful machines that have propelled themselves into the record books. Ultimate Speed Samuel Hawley, Craig Breedlove, 2018-10-02 An L.A. hot rodder with a high school education, a family to support, and almost no money, Craig Breedlove set out in the late 1950s to do something big: harness the thrust of a jet in a car. With a growing obsession that would cost him his marriage, he started building in his dad's garage. The car's name was Spirit of America. Through perseverance and endless hard work, Craig completed Spirit and broke the land speed record on the Bonneville Salt Flats, setting a new mark of 407 mph in 1963. He went on to be the first person to drive 500 and 600 mph, breaking the land speed record five times. In the early 1970s he turned to rockets and set an acceleration record at Bonneville that stands to this day He built a jet car in the 1990s Spirit of America Sonic Arrow to go head to head against Britain's ThrustSSC to be the first to Mach 1 Craig's subsequent crash at 675 mph remains the fastest in history Even today at the age of eighty he is going strong with plans for yet another Spirit of America racer The ultimate goal 1 000 mph

Ultimate Speed is the authorized biography of Craig Breedlove with a foreword by Craig himself A candid revelation of one of motorsports most interesting figures the book is based primarily on countless hours of interviews with Craig and dozens of people connected to his life
