including extensive interviews with art historians Lucy R Lippard and Barbara Rose Judd's contributions in interviews panels and extemporaneous conversations are marked by his forthright manner and rigorous thinking whether in dialogue with art critics art historians or his contemporaries In one of the last interviews he observed Generally expensive art is in expensive chic circumstances it's a falsification The society is basically not interested in art And most people who are artists do that because they like the work they like to do that make art Art has an integrity of its own and a purpose of its own and it's not to serve the society That's been tried now in the Soviet Union and lots of places and it doesn't work The only role I can think of in a very general way for the artist is that they tend to shake up the society a little bit just by their existence in which case it helps undermine the general political stagnation and perhaps by providing a little freedom supports science which requires freedom If the artist isn't free you won't have any art Donald Judd Interviews is co published by Judd Foundation and David Zwirner Books The interviews expand upon the artist's thinking present in Donald Judd Writings Judd Foundation David Zwirner Books 2016

Minimal Art Daniel Marzona, 2004 The bare minimum Often regarded as a backlash against abstract expressionism Minimalism was characterized by simplified stripped down forms and materials used to express ideas in a direct and impersonal manner By presenting artworks as simple objects minimalist artists sought to communicate esthetic ideals without reference to expressive or historical themes This critical movement which began in the 1960s and branched out into land art performance art and conceptual art is still a major influence today This book explains the how why where and when of Minimal Art and the artists who helped define it Featured artists Carl Andre Stephen
