Donkey Show:

Enveloping Worlds E.B. Hunter, Scott Magelssen, 2025-04-29 Enveloping Worlds is a collection of essays that analyzes the phenomenon of immersive participatory performance as it has developed in the US. As this collection demonstrates, immersive performance offers three-dimensional multisensory experiences inviting audience members to be participants in the unfolding of the story and challenging pre-existing ideas about the function of performance and entertainment. Enveloping Worlds questions audience agency and choice, the space and boundaries of performance, modes of immersion, empathy and engagement, and ethical considerations through fifteen essays. Case studies in the volume include the Choctaw Cultural Center in Oklahoma and Choctaw sovereignty, a Black artist's autoethnographic performance challenging White audiences' entitlement to full inclusion, Immersive Van Gogh experiences, and their scenographers' telephone performance during the COVID-19 lockdowns. Diane Paulus's The Donkey Show, the Battle of Atlanta panorama, an antebellum-themed department store display from the 1920s, escape rooms at Disney Parks, remotely staged plays about aging and dementia, tiki bars, anachronistic costuming at Renaissance Festivals, the technologies that shape the boundaries of immersive worlds, and tabletop role-playing games. Taken together, these essays contribute a rich discussion of immersive performance across radically different contexts, offering analytical models and terminology with which to clarify and advance this emergent discourse.

Funnyman Adam Carolla is known for two things: hilarious rants about things that drive him crazy and personal stories about everything from his hardscrabble childhood to his slacker friends to the hypocrisy of Hollywood. He tackled rants in his first book, and now he tells his best stories and debuts some never-before-heard tales as well. Organized by the myriad dumps Carolla called home through the flophouse apartments he rented in his twenties up to the homes he personally renovated after achieving success in Hollywood, the anecdotes here follow Adam's journey and the hilarious pitfalls along the way. Adam Carolla started broke and blue-collar and has now been on the Hollywood scene for over fifteen years, yet he never lost his underdog demeanor. He's still connected to the working-class guy he once was and delivers a raw and edgy fish-out-of-water take on the world he lives in, but mostly disagrees with telling all the stories, no matter who he offends: family, friends, or the famous.
