Consumer Experience required by Brick-and-Mortar to successfully attract Generation Z Kira Hassert, 2019-08-26

Master's Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources. Generation Y, Generation Z, grade 1-7. University of Applied Sciences Ludwigshafen, language English, abstract. Digitalization, globalization, innovation. In an era where the phrase 'retail apocalypse' gets shouted across the globe and brick-and-mortar retailers struggle to remain competitive, rapid technological change is fueling innovation but is disrupting and upending traditional businesses. Offline retailers realize the need to play catch up with fast-growing online-only retailers that have a data-driven approach to steadily improve their operations and understand consumer needs. In a highly competitive industry where the lack of functional differentiation is a catalyst for products and services to become increasingly exchangeable, a competitive advantage can only be created based on customer experiences. Brick-and-mortar stores admit to struggle understanding shopper needs while also facing a new Generation of consumers that differs to any other known before. The objective of the present work is to determine key success factors in consumer experience required by brick-and-mortar in order to successfully attract Generation Z.
