and perceptions of learning were also collected Results suggest that providing a rationale for learning had positive effects on students motivation and learning and its effects were affected by the source of rationale In terms of motivation students sense of autonomy increased over time whether they listened to student or instructor rationales Students who listened to instructor rationales reported an increase in their sense of relatedness to instructors while those who listened to student rationales reported a decrease in their relatedness to instructors In terms of learning both the quantitative and qualitative results indicate that listening to rationales provided by former students had the most positive effect on students final grades and their ability to apply major ideas covered in the course to real life problems Findings suggest that student rationales can be effective in promoting students motivation and learning in an online learning context This study adds to the existing body of literature by examining whether the source of rationale matters in promoting students learning and motivation The current study also focuses on the learning aspects of provisions of rationales By triangulating different learning outcome measures a better understanding of the effects of providing a rationale has on students learning has been achieved In addition the design of this study demonstrates how research grounded in theory can be conducted with strong ecological validity when implemented in regular online courses Unlike other studies where inauthentic tasks were given this project was done in a natural academic setting Finally the kinds of treatments that were developed for this study can easily be implemented in teaching practices in face to face or online environments The dissertation citations contained here are published with the permission of ProQuest llc Further reproduction is prohibited without permission Copies of dissertations may be obtained by Telephone 800 1 800 521 0600 Web page http://www.proquest.com/en\_US/products/dissertations/individuals.shtml Stanford Business ,2008 Renewal ,2008 The New York Times Index ,2007
