It may seem surprising that the economic choices we make in society are often determined by ideas rather than scientific evidence or financial resources The consequences of such choices are often stark such as the austerity policies which eroded our ability to withstand crises like the Covid 19 pandemic This book explores the ideas that rule how our economy works how government operates and how workers organise A small number of historical economic ideas remain stubbornly prevalent and powerful today However they are largely based on questionable assumptions about human behaviour and unproven theoretical ideas about economics They were founded within the realms of philosophy and politics rather than hard science This book illustrates how politicians have selectively borrowed convenient economic concepts in order to promote and defend policies which entrench and escalate inequalities and other structural problems This accessible book invites readers to question the ideas that rule us and explore the challenges facing society It invites progressive thought about how we need to urgently organise action for the future

Complicit Reah Bravo,2024-06-18 A brave book that imbues MeToo era discourse with a fresh voice Kate Bolick New York Times bestselling author this is a thoroughly researched and deeply personal examination of how women unintentionally condone workplace abuse and what we can do to change things for the better When Reah Bravo began working at the Charlie Rose show the open secret of Rose s conduct towards women didn t deter her from pursuing a position she thought could launch her career in broadcast journalism She considered herself more than capable of handling any unprofessional behavior that might come her way But she soon learned a devastating truth we don t always react to abusive situations as we imagine we will When we live in a society where many feminist ideals are mainstream and women hold positions of power how is it possible that sexual misconduct remains prevalent When many employers mandate trainings to prevent harassment of all kinds why is workplace abuse still so rampant Weaving her own experience with those of other women and insights from experts Bravo reveals the psychological and cultural forces that make us all enablers of a sexist and dangerous status quo At a critical time in the ongoing fight for gender and racial justice Bravo has written an empathic and concise book that will inspire the next generation of voices courageous enough to rage against the machine Rebecca Carroll author of Surviving the White Gaze The Routledge Handbook of Conflict and Peace Communication Stacey L.

Connaughton, Stefanie Pukallus, 2024-10-29 This handbook provides a comprehensive review of research in conflict and peace communication and offers readers a range of insights into foundational ongoing and emerging discussions in this field The volume brings together peace studies conflict studies and communication studies to acknowledge the power of communication both cooperative solidarizing and integrative as well as destructive and divisive in constituting social relations It features a multiplicity of authors including academics and practitioners from all corners of the globe and from across the communicative spectrum The handbook is divided into four parts 1 Meta theoretical theoretical and methodological approaches in conflict and peace communication research 2 Conflict communication 3 Peace communication and 4 Cross cutting and emergent themes This handbook is essential reading for scholars research driven practitioners graduate level students and upper level undergraduate students in conflict and peace communication within disciplines such as communication studies political science international relations security studies and human rights Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video David K. Irving, Peter W. Rea, 2013-03-20 Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video is the definitive book on the subject for beginning filmmakers and students The book clearly illustrates all of the steps involved in preproduction production postproduction and distribution Its unique two fold approach looks at filmmaking from the perspectives of both producer and director and explains how their separate energies must combine to create a successful short film or video from script to final product This guide offers extensive examples from award winning shorts and includes insightful quotes from the filmmakers themselves describing the problems they encountered and how they solved them The companion website contains useful forms and information on grants and financing sources distributors film and video festivals film schools internet sources for short works and professional associations Women of China, 2006-07
