Neutrosophic Stance Detection and fsQCA-Based Necessary Condition Analysis for Causal Hypothesis Assessment in AI-Enhanced Learning Jesús Rafael Hechavarría-Hernández, Maikel Y. Leyva Vazquez, Florentin Smarandache, This study addresses the ambiguities in empirical findings on artificial intelligence AI in education by proposing a new methodological framework that combines neutrosophic stance detection and Fuzzy Set Qualitative Comparative Analysis fsQCA This approach explicitly models truth indeterminacy and falsity allowing for the synthesis of contradictory research The authors evaluated four causal hypotheses related to AI based learning using a survey of 24 university participants to explore the necessary conditions for perceived learning improvements The results indicate that the digital divide is a perfectly necessary condition for effective AI enhanced learning The findings also reveal that AI feedback and AI platform use are necessary though not sufficient for learning improvements but generate significant uncertainty The study concludes that the neutrosophic fsQCA framework is a viable technique for synthesizing ambiguous findings and provides empirical evidence that digital equity and high quality design are crucial for the successful integration of AI in education

The Power of New Urban Tourism Claudia Ba, Sybille Frank, Claus Müller, Anna Laura Raschke, Kristin Wellner, Annika Zecher, 2021-07-21 The Power of New Urban Tourism explores new forms of tourism in urban areas with their social political cultural architectural and economic implications By investigating various showcases of New Urban Tourism within its social and spatial frames the book offers insights into power relations and connections between tourism and cityscapes in various socio spatial settings around the world Contributors to the volume show how urban space has become a battleground between local residents and visitors with changing perceptions of tourists as co users of public and private urban spaces and as influencers of the local economies This includes different roles of digital platforms as resources for access to the city and touristic opportunities as well as ways to organise and express protest or shifting representations of urban space With contemporary cases from a wide disciplinary spectrum the contributors investigate the power of New Urban Tourism in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania This focus allows a cross cultural evaluation of New Urban Tourism and its dynamic and changing conception transforming and subverting cities and tourism alike The Power of New Urban Tourism will be of great interest to academics researchers and students in the fields of cultural studies sociology the political sciences economics history human geography urban design and planning architecture ethnology and anthropology
