Retaining Women in Engineering Robert Stavig,Alissa Stavig,2022-11-22 Diversity drives better business results however despite decades of effort women make up only 15% of engineers Retaining Women in Engineering The Empowerment of Lean Development approaches the problem of women leaving engineering from a systems level perspective to change the way engineering is done and level the playing field between men and women This book utilizes the six principles of Lean Development and draws from the learnings of the field of medicine recognizing that access to a vast amount of written knowledge is an important part of a physician s learning process Using these principles the book provides leaders with concrete strategies and methods to change the way engineering is done and learning occurs Integrated within the book are gray box stories which describe two different worlds that engineers work in that of traditional development and that of Lean Development These stories underscore the way that the gender confidence gap bias and stereotypes affect a female engineer s career Additionally the book highlights how the methods of Lean Development strengthen an individual s ability to control their learning and career and a leader s ability to coach others more effectively Ultimately this results in more capable teams Furthermore not unlike the marine chronometer a clock which solved the centuries old challenge of establishing the longitudinal location for a ship at sea this book finds the clock that levels the playing field between men and women This book will help leaders at every level within an engineering firm as well as women engineers and managers who want to grow to their full potential and others who care about gender equity Commerce ,1920 The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re reading of women s writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women s writing Ward's Automobile Topics ,1918 Financial Review and American Building Association News ,1907 The Country Gentleman ,1909 Farmer's Advocate and Home Journal ,1916 Practical Farmer ,1913 Matrix ,1928 The Furniture Journal ,1908 Ladies' Home Journal and Practical Housekeeper ,1887 Travel ,1912 Farm Journal ,1911
