Controversies In Media Ethics 2nd Edition:

Controversies in Media Ethics David Gordon, 2011 Controversies in Media Ethics offers students instructors and professionals multiple perspectives on media ethics issues presenting vast gray areas and few if any easy answers This third edition includes a wide range of subjects and demonstrates a willingness to tackle the problems raised by new technologies new media new politics and new economics The core of the text is formed by 14 chapters each of which deals with a particular problem or likelihood of ethical dilemma presented as different points of view on the topic in question as argued by two or more contributing authors The 15th chapter is a collection of mini chapters allowing students to discern first hand how to deal with ethical problems Contributing authors John A Armstrong Peter J Gade Julianne H Newton Kim Sheehan and Jane B Singer provide additional voices and perspectives on various topics under discussion This edition has been thoroughly updated to provide discussions of issues reflecting the breadth and depth of the media spectrum numerous real world examples broad discussion of confidentiality and other timely topics A Companion Website www.routledge.com/textbooks/9780415963329 supplies resources for both students and instructors You can also join the Controversies community on Facebook <http://www.facebook.com/CME3rd> Developed for use in media ethics courses Controversies in Media Ethics provides up to date discussions and analysis of ethical situations across a variety of media including issues dealing with the Internet and new media It provides a unique consideration of ethical concerns and serves as provocative reading for all media students

Controversies in Media Ethics David Gordon, John M. Kittross, John Calhoun Merrill, Carol Reuss, 1999 Provides students and practitioners with a carefully constructed set of opposing arguments which focus on several major controversies facing mass media practitioners today Each chapter deals with specific controversies and has two contrasting points of view on a major problem written by two different authors Controversies in Media Ethics David Gordon, John M. Kittross, Carol Reuss, 1996

Media Ethics and Accountability Systems Claude-Jean Bertrand, 2018-04-17 Over the last few years the O J Simpson case then the Lewinsky Clinton affair and scores of minor scandals have dominated the US press often taking precedence over important domestic and international issues This tabloidization of the news media both here and abroad has proved that the market cannot insure media quality In a democracy for media to function well they must be free of both political and economic muzzling The only solution is to add self regulation or quality control by professionals and public to the other two forces the market and state regulation In this controversial volume Claude Jean Bertrand sets out to define a set of accountability systems democratic efficient and harmless to insure true freedom and quality of media This brief highly literate volume focuses not on philosophical foundations of media ethics or case stories but on what is now missing in the codes Many books deal with media ethics but few deal with accountability Media Ethics and Accountability Systems zeroes in on the many nongovernmental methods of enforcing quality control and on the difficulty of getting the media microcosm to accept such accountability To remedy this lack Bertrand proposes rethinking existing media accountability systems some 30 to 40 in number and creation of new ones He observes that existing systems are rooted in four basic approaches training the education of citizens in media use and the incorporation of ethics courses in journalistic education evaluation criticism positive and negative not only from politicians consumerists and intellectuals but from media professionals themselves monitoring by independent academic experts over extended periods of time into the long term effects and feedback giving ear to the various segments of media users and their needs and tastes rather than scrutinizing sales and ratings Media Ethics will be of particular interest to academics in the fields of communication and journalism as well as to the general reader with an interest in public issues and a civic concern for society The Handbook of Mass Media Ethics Lee Wilkins, Clifford G. Christians, 2008-09-17 This Handbook encapsulates the intellectual history of mass media ethics over the past twenty five years Chapters serve as a summary of existing research and thinking in the field as well as setting agenda items for future research Key features include up to date and comprehensive coverage of media ethics one of the hottest topics in the media community one stop shopping for historical and current research in media ethics experienced top tier editors advisory board and contributors It will be an essential reference on media ethics theory and research for scholars graduate students and researchers in media mass communication and journalism Defining Sport Communication Andrew C. Day,1991 Uses the case study method as a way to stimulate involvement in the material these cases have been developed not as propaganda or vague examples but with student reasoning processes in mind Begins with an overview of ethical theory outlines a systematic approach to making ethical choices and defending those choices then provides opportunity to apply these choices Each issue chapter introduces an issue with an overview followed by several cases the background of which is developed for students students are then left to analyze the cases using the theoretical background developed at the chapter opening and the systematic reasoning model used in Ch 3 Covers such issues as targeting special audiences morally offensive content triviality and sensationalism etc An Ethics Trajectory John Michael Kittross,2008

Keyguide: Media Ethics Barrie MacDonald,Michel Petheram,1998-08-13 This guide to information sources in media ethics is divided into three parts Part I is an overview of the literature covering the mass media in general telecommunications broadcasting in all its forms cinema and video the press advertising publishing and ethical issues of the media such as government policy and influence legislation codes of practice censorship representation and reportage issues etc Part II is an annotated bibliography and Part III is an international directory of organizations related to the subject A detailed index completes the work International IDEA Handbook on Democracy Assessment David Beetham,2002 The International IDEA Handbook on Democracy Assessment is a robust and sensitive guide to assessing the quality of democracy and human rights in any country around the world The Handbook introduces an easy to use and universal methodology for assessing the condition of democracy in any country or its progress in democratisation that has been developed in a three year action programme at IDEA the inter governmental Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance in Sweden The Handbook provides a means to measure systematically the full range of values institutions and issues relating to modern democracy that is sensitive to the underlying principles and democracy and the differences between democracies themselves It is therefore both universal in application and capable of responding to particular aspects of any one nation s democratic arrangements The animating principle of the Handbook is that only citizens of a nation themselves are qualified to assess the quality of their own democratic arrangements Thus it provides a self help guide which gives academics lawyers political practitioners journalists and interested citizens the tools to assess the state of their democracy or any key aspects of their democracy The Handbook is above all a practical working document that draws on the actual experience of assessing democracy in different countries comparative knowledge and research and democratic principles and practice It gives a step by step guide to the purposes and methods of democracy assessment who to involve how to use the research tools how to validate the findings what standards of practice to adopt and how to present and publicise a finished assessment It contains extracts from completed assessments guidance on the use of qualitative and quantitative data examples of codes of democratic practice and international and regional standards and a vast list of accessible data sources The methodology was created by a team of political scientists assembled from all regions of the world by International IDEA and has been tried and tested in a variety of countries including Bangladesh El Salvador Italy Kenya Malawi New Zealand Peru South Korea and the United Kingdom International organisations like the World Bank and UNECA are adapting it for in country use The four main authors and editors have been directly involved from the inception of the project in developing and refining the methodology and participating in and advising on the nine country studies that form the essential practical core of experience on which this invaluable Handbook is based Media Ethics K. M.

Shrivastava,2005 Media Ethics Philip Patterson, Lee Wilkins, 2007-07-23 This diverse compilation of classroom tested cases in media ethics combines real life and hypothetical cases with a succinct introduction to relevant ethical theory An Arsenal for Democracy Claude Jean Bertrand, 2003 Everyone agrees that news media cannot be ruled solely by the profit motive and that government regulation on media is extremely dangerous How then can we obtain good service from news media As far as ethics is concerned can we depend on the moral conscience of professionals to insure good service The answer is MAS nongovernmental media accountability systems The book concentrates on MAS as one of the three pillars of goods new media together with free enterprise and state regulation It presents general information about the major media accountability systems and their useful press council ombudsman journalism review etc and a chapter on each of them is written by an expert who has been involved with that particular system Crime Victims and the Media John Joseph Breslin, 2003 The Cumulative Book Index , 1999 Doing Ethics in Journalism Jay Black, Bob Steele, Ralph D.
