Hard Conversations Unpacked Jennifer Abrams, Corwin, 2015-12-23 Learn to speak up for what really matters Tough talks are never easy but in her best selling book Having Hard Conversations Jennifer Abrams showed educators how to speak intentionally with colleagues about work related issues through a planned interactive and personal approach In this sequel she moves readers deeper into the nuances of how to prepare for those conversations while building expectations for positive and meaningful outcomes Putting clarity before accountability or by being clear about what should be understood before going in can and will increase the favorable results of those tough talks With an emphasis on what needs to happen before during and after hard conversations this resource explores What humane growth producing and other centered conversations sound like How race culture gender and generational filters influence perceptions and how to account for them How to spot and work with organizational dynamics that could influence discussions How to conduct hard conversations with supervisors Plan for positive outcomes from hard conversations Let this resource empower you to expect and professionally navigate environmental influences unexpected pushback and uncomfortable silences toward real understanding and progress Abrams who cites a broad and current body of literature provides a valuable rationale for why certain ways of talking are more effective than others Robert J Garmston Professor Emeritus Co Developer of COgnitive Coaching Adaptive Schools California State University Sacramento In order to grow as learners educators and leaders we need to be provided with feedback that will enhance our growth That feedback doesn't come easily We shy away from providing honest feedback because we're afraid it will be taken the wrong way That is why I love Having Hard Conversations 2.0 Jennifer Abrams brings us through the process beautifully with a great deal of honesty and we can learn a great deal from her insight This is an important read for anyone in education Peter De Witt Former School Principal Finding Common Ground Blog Corwin

NONVIOLENCE OR NONEXISTENCE Witness of a Body in the Body of the World LeRoy Moore, 2022-08-30 The summary of this book is present in the title Nonviolence or Nonexistence I grew up knowing closely the violence of my father He was violent with me and also with my stepmother after my mother's early death As a boy I thought this was the life for men I was living a lie But I soon learned about nonviolence from Martin Luther King and with much more detail from Mohandas Gandhi of India Later I read the works of Gene Sharp of Harvard who emphasized strongly that we must abandon violence Early in my adult years I became a devotee of nonviolence especially after I learned that nuclear weapons were manufactured at the Rocky Flats Plant near Boulder Colorado where I lived Achieving closure of Rocky Flats was a major accomplishment for devotees of nonviolence In words I used as a visiting professor at the University of Denver I am a body in the body of the world Drawing on a lifetime's experience of nonviolent thought and activism this book emphasizes that to survive we must end our devotion to violence
