Conversation And Storytelling In Fifteenth And Sixteenth Century French Nouvelles:

Conversation and Storytelling in Fifteenth- and Sixteenth-century French Nouvelles Kathleen Loysen, 2004 This book focuses on the role of represented speech in four short story collections from fifteenth and sixteenth century France the anonymous Evangelies des quenouilles Martial d'Auvergne's Arrêts d'Amour Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron and Noël Du Fail's Propos rustiques As a study of the narrative staging of the acts of storytelling and conversing it raises issues of orality aural and literacy as well as of the processes of textual production transmission and reception In addition the conversational frame of these short story collections deliberately sets up questions about the accessibility and reliability of truth While these collections claim to enter upon the path toward universal truth the difficulty of such an enterprise is revealed through their very narrative structure where the polyphony of opposing voices and divergent opinions is engaged by the very acts of conversation and storytelling themselves

Music, Myth and Story in Medieval and Early Modern Culture Katherine Butler, Samantha Bassler, 2019 The complex relationship between myths and music is here investigated Myths and stories offer a window onto medieval and early modern musical culture Far from merely offering material for musical settings authoritative tales from classical mythology ancient history and the Bible were treated as foundations for musical knowledge Such myths were cited in support of arguments about the uses effects morality and preferred styles of music in sources as diverse as theoretical treatises defences or critiques of music art sermons educational literature and books of moral conduct Newly written literary stories too were believed capable of moral instruction and influence and were a medium through which ideas about music could be both explored and transmitted How authors interpreted and weaved together these traditional stories or created their own reveals much about changing attitudes across the period Looking beyond the well known figure of Orpheus this collection explores the myriad stories that shaped not only musical thought but also its styles techniques and practices The essays show that music itself performed and created knowledge in ways parallel to myth and worked in tandem with old and new tales to construct social political and philosophical views This relationship was not static however as the Enlightenment dawned the once authoritative gods became comic characters and myth became a medium for ridicule Overall the book provides a foundation for exploring myth and story throughout medieval and early modern culture and facilitating further study into the Enlightenment and beyond KATHERINE BUTLER is a senior lecturer in music at Northumbria University SAMANTHA BASSLER is a musicologist of cultural studies a teaching artist and an adjunct professor in the New York metropolitan area Contributors Jamie Apgar Katie Bank Samantha Bassler Katherine Butler Elina G Hamilton Sigrid Harris Ljubica Ilic Erica Levenson John MacInnis Patrick McMahon Aurora Faye Martinez Jacomien Prins Tim Shephard Jason Stoessel Fredia J Stone Davis Amanda Eubanks Winkler

Marguerite de Navarre Emily Butterworth, 2022 A new exploration of the complexities and resolutions at play in the writings of Marguerite de Navarre offering insights into how her work reflected the turbulence uncertainties and assurances of her historical period Marguerite de Navarre was a Renaissance princess diplomat and mystical poet She is arguably best known for The Heptameron an answer to Boccaccio's Decameron a brilliant and open ended collection of short stories told by a group of men and women stranded in a monastery The stories explore love desire male and female honour individual salvation and the iniquity of Franciscan monks while the discussions between the storytellers enact and embody the tensions ideologies and prejudices underlying the stories Marguerite herself was deeply involved in the debates and conflicts of her time Her work reflects the turbulence uncertainties and assurances of her historical period as the Renaissance re imagined the past and the Reformation re made the church and represents her original and sometimes provocative position on these questions This book presents The Heptameron and its investigations into gender relations the nature of love and the nature of religious faith in the context of the intellectual religious and political questions of the sixteenth century setting it alongside Marguerite's other writings her poetry plays and diplomatic letters In chapters on communities religion politics gender relationships desire and literary technique it explores the complexities and resolutions of Marguerite's writing and her world It aims to offer a guide to the critical tradition on Marguerite's work along with new readings of her texts revealing both the historical specificity of her writing and its continuing relevance

Le dialogue philosophique dans les contes de Voltaire Annick Azerhad, 2010 Une étude du dialogue philosophique en tant que procédé dans les contes de Voltaire permettant d'ouvrir une perspective nouvelle de recherche sur son utilisation dans le genre narratif L'esthétique des dialogues rend compte de l'ouverture d'esprit et l'honnêteté intellectuelle des locuteurs parti pris de la brève dialogue prenant forme de parabole d'apologue ou de prophétie

Models of Women in Sixteenth-century French Literature Pollie Bromilow, 2007 This book offers a feminist critique of the so called crisis of exemplarity in late Renaissance texts by comparing and contrasting examples proposed to female readers in two collections of sixteenth century French short stories Pierre Boaistuau's Histoires tragiques and Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron The author proposes that female exemplarity has its own poetics and cannot be considered simply as identical or symmetrical to male exemplarity What emerges in the course of the study is an understanding of the different ways in which exemplarity enters the life of the female reader through history truth invention memory and strangeness
