Conversational Cajun French I:

Conversational Cajun French 1 Randall P. Whatley, Harry Jannise, 2016-03-24 The Cajun language spoken by the descendants of exiled Acadians has been passed on by word of mouth for more than two hundred years Cajun French is still widely spoken throughout Louisiana despite threat of extinction and the controversies associated with including the language in school curricula Conversational Cajun French I the first systematic approach to teaching the language makes Cajun French accessible to those born outside Cajun families and works to preserve the Cajun language and culture An extremely practical introduction to Cajun French this resource focuses on everyday words and common phrases that can be understood everywhere the language is spoken regardless of the various dialects and subdialects The Cajun words for the days and months holidays parts of the body numbers clothing colors foods animals fruits and vegetables tools and plants as well as a section of useful expressions and a list of traditional Cajun names are among the elements included The book designed for use in conjunction with the companion compact discs or audio download includes a pronunciation guide to enable even the beginning student to converse with Cajuns Narrated by author Randall P Whatley the CDs and download clarify the nuanced pronunciation necessary to learn this beautiful and until now elusive language Conversational Cajun French Randall P.
