Conversations With Eternity The Forgotten Masterpiece Of Victor Hugo:

Conversations with Eternity Victor Hugo, 1998 In 1853 1855 the great French writer Victor Hugo while in exile on the island of Jersey channeled thousands of messages from the famous dead The spirits told him that powerful energies from beyond the grave and from other star systems were trying to raise up the vibrational level of our earth They told him our participation was essential The messages to Hugo of great passion power and poetry were exactly like those of the trance mediums of today only 150 years ahead of their time They have never been surpassed and only recently has their meaning begun to be understood Here they are difficult to obtain in French and translated into English for the first time ever with a commentary Prepare to enter into a whole new universe one exploding with the grace of God astounding in its revelations and harrowing in the service that it now demands of us Cultural Integration and the Gospel in Vietnamese Mission Theology KimSon Nguyen, 2019-11-14 Postcolonial Vietnam has an urgent need for contextualized theology of mission God Christ and the church that is rooted in indigenous cultural traditions and the dual Vietnamese spirit of resistance and assimilation Dr KimSon Nguyen navigates the religio cultural dimensions of Vietnamese spirituality and Daoism that have hindered the assimilation of the Christian faith in the Vietnamese context and explores a fresh approach to missiology in Vietnam Dr Nguyen draws upon his deep knowledge of Vietnamese evangelical history to analyze contextualization and mission theology in Vietnam He proposes an evangelical theology of God as a way the centrality of the Vietnamese home as the house of the Lord and ancestor veneration as a theological framework for an indigenous theology of the family Narrowing the gap between culturally removed evangelical missionary practice and widespread syncretistic spirituality in Vietnam Nguyen calls for a paradigm shift in Vietnamese mission theology that is both robustly evangelical and authentically Vietnamese Is Paris Still the Capital of the Nineteenth Century? Hollis Clayson, 2017-07-05 Is Paris Still the Capital of the Nineteenth Century The question that guides this volume stems from Walter Benjamin's studies of nineteenth century Parisian culture as the apex of capitalist aesthetics Thirteen scholars test Benjamin's ideas about the centrality of Paris formulated in the 1930s from a variety of methodological perspectives Many investigate the underpinnings of the French capital's reputation and mythic force which was based largely upon the city's capacity to put itself on display Some of the authors reassess the famed centrality of Paris from the vantage point of our globalized twenty first century by acknowledging its entanglements with South Africa Turkey Japan and the United States The volume equally studies a broader range of media than Benjamin did himself from modernist painting and printmaking photography and illustration to urban planning The essays conclude that Paris did in many ways function as the epicenter of modernity's international reach especially in the years from 1850 to 1900 but did so only as a consequence of the idiosyncratic force of its mythic image Above all the essays affirm that the study of late nineteenth century Paris still requires nimble and innovative approaches commensurate with its legend and global aura Forbidden Religion J. Douglas Kenyon, 2006-09-22 Reveals the thread that unites the spiritual paths that have opposed orthodox religion over the centuries and the challenge they provide to the status quo Contains 40 essays by 18 key investigators of heresies and suppressed spiritual traditions including Steven Sora Ian Lawton Jeff Nisbet P M H Atwater John Chambers and Vincent Bridges Edited by Atlantis Rising publisher J Douglas Kenyon Following the model of his bestselling Forbidden History J Douglas Kenyon has assembled from his bi monthly journal Atlantis Rising material that explores the hidden path of the religions banned by the orthodox Church from the time before Christ when the foundations of Christianity were being laid to the tumultuous times of the Cathars and Templars and the Masons of the New World Revealed in this investigation of the roots of Western faith are the intimate ties of ancient Egyptian religion to Christianity the true identities of the three magi the link forged by the Templars between early Christianity and the Masons and how these hidden religious currents still influence the modern world This book serves as a compelling introduction to the true history of the heretical religious traditions that played as vital a role in society as the established faiths that continuously tried to suppress them Born in the same religious ferment that gave birth to Christianity these spiritual paths survived in the heresies of the Middle Ages and in the theories of the great Renaissance thinkers and their successors such as Isaac Newton and Giordano Bruno Brought to the New World by the Masons who inspired the American Revolution the influence of these forbidden religions can be still found today in The Star Spangled Banner and in such Masonic symbols as the pyramid on the back of the dollar bill

The Divine Eye and the Diaspora Janet Alison Hoskins, 2015-02-28 What is the relationship between syncretism and diaspora Caodaism is a large but almost unknown new religion that provides answers to this question Born in Vietnam during the struggles of decolonization shattered and spatially dispersed by cold war conflicts it is now reshaping the goals of its four million followers Colorful and strikingly eclectic its outrageous syncretism incorporates Chinese Buddhist and Western religions as well as world figures like Victor Hugo Jeanne d Arc Vladimir Lenin and in the USA Joseph Smith the founder of Mormonism The book looks at the connections between the age of revelations 1925 1934 in French Indochina and the age of diaspora 1975 present when many Caodai leaders and followers went into exile Structured in paired biographies to trace relations between masters and disciples now separated by oceans it focuses on five members of the founding generation and their followers or descendants in California showing the continuing obligation to honor those who forged the initial vision to bring the gods of the East and West together Diasporic congregations in California have interacted with New Age ideas and stereotypes of a Walt Disney fantasia of the East at the same time that temples in Vietnam have re opened their doors after decades of severe restrictions Caodaism forces us to reconsider how anthropologists study religious mixtures in postcolonial settings Its dynamics challenge the unconscious Eurocentrism of our notions of how religions are bounded and conceptualized

Searching for Eternity Donald R. Morse, 2000 What happens when we die Do we simply cease to exist with our consciousness obliterated for all eternity Or do we have an enduring soul that can continue to experience awareness and some form of ongoing life Does God exist Without a creator how can the universe exist What is the purpose of the universe and what is its ultimate fate Does our behavior in day to day life really influence what happens to us after we die Why do many people believe in a heaven and a hell What is the basis of these beliefs Should we be anxious about our death or just enjoy life in the here and now Can these ultimate mysteries be solved by science What does science already know about the mysteries of creation Sooner or later all of us will face the stark reality of death Many people go through life with an increasing awareness and increasing anxiety about their eventual fate Dr Don Morse a scientist who believed in the absolute finality of death did too Then his near death experience led him on a quest to uncover what science knows about the nature of death Dr Morse's subsequent spiritual journey led him through the entire realm of science and religious beliefs until he came to an inescapable conclusion Some form of an afterlife must exist Join Dr Morse as he summarizes the vast research and data leading to this conclusion Near death and out of body experiences experiments creating apparitions research attempting to weight the soul and the wide range of ancient and modern spiritual concepts are all covered in this masterful comprehensive scientific quest for truth back cover

Father Ernetti's Chronovisor Peter Krassa, 2000 Did an Italian monk out of a burning love of music invent a time machine in this century a machine that would extend his senses Far back into time According to Mr Krassa Father Alfredo Pellegrino Ernetti born in 1926 and who died mysteriously in 1996 developed the apparatus over a period of 40 years Ernetti a professor of Archaic Music was obsessed with the notion of finding out what an Old Roman opera Thyestes sounded like when played with musical instruments of that period Driven by his passion he developed a theoretical basis so brilliant he was able to gather a team of distinguished scientists who would bring life to his time machine The Chronovisor
