Resilient Kitchens Philip Gleissner, Harry Eli Kashdan, 2023-05-12 Immigrants have left their mark on the great melting pot of American cuisine and they have continued working hard to keep America's kitchens running even during times of crisis like the COVID 19 pandemic For some immigrant cooks the pandemic brought home the lack of protection for essential workers in the American food system For others cooking was a way of reconnecting with homelands they could not visit during periods of lockdown Resilient Kitchens American Immigrant Cooking in a Time of Crisis is a stimulating collection of essays about the lives of immigrants in the United States before and during the COVID 19 pandemic told through the lens of food It includes a vibrant mix of perspectives from professional food writers restaurateurs scholars and activists whose stories range from emotional reflections on hardship loss and resilience to journalistic investigations of racism in the American food system Each contribution is accompanied by a recipe of special importance to the author giving readers a taste of cuisines from around the world Every essay is accompanied by gorgeous food photography the authors snapshots of pandemic life and hand drawn illustrations by Filipino American artist Angelo Dolojan Madame Wu's Handbook on Home-cooking Madame Wu, 2023 Modern Chinese Foodways Jia-Chen Fu, Michelle T. King, Jakob A. Klein, 2025-03-04 An edited collection that explores the multifaceted experiences of Chinese culinary modernity both within and outside of mainland China from the mid 19th century to present Modern Chinese Foodways defines some of the major processes by which Chinese food and foodways have become modern with a focus on the period from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century The editors Jia Chen Fu Michelle T King and Jakob A Klein highlight four prominent areas of change commodification of food production the scientization of expertise and the development of new food technologies the creation of new culinary identities based on gender ethnicity and nation and the circuits of migration taking place since the nineteenth century This collection argues that Chinese food and foodways are very much modern not a given in the face of the chorus of voices that insists on emphasizing its ancient roots in ways that both recall the experiences of other cultures as well as in ways unique to China's own historical trajectory The book combines incisive original scholarship by thirteen leading voices in the field with editorial essays on the past and future of Chinese food studies to frame the field of inquiry for the next generation of Chinese food studies scholars Demonstrating the significance of modern Chinese foodways to the phenomenon of culinary modernity writ large which is still largely shaped by Euro American perspectives and priorities Modern Chinese Foodways is the first book of its kind
