Measuring Success Lynn Molyneux,1996 Creating a Theme-based Classroom Lynn Molyneux,1993 Gives criteria and conditions to consider before embarking on a multidisciplinary or integrative approach to education and provides ideas that will help build a theme based classroom Collaborative Learning and Writing Kathleen M. Hunzer,2014-01-10

Although most writing instructors know the benefits of collaborative learning and writing in college writing classes many remain unsure how to implement collaborative techniques successfully in the classroom This collection provides a diversity of voices that address the how tos of collaborative learning and writing by addressing key concerns about the process Fresh essays consider the importance of collaborative work and peer review the best ways to select groups in classes integration of collaborative learning techniques into electronic environments whether group learning and writing are appropriate for all writing classes and ways special populations can benefit from collaborative activities Despite its challenges collaborative learning can prove remarkably effective and this study provides the advice to make it work smoothly and successfully

Making Great Stuff for the Theme-based Classroom Lynn Molyneux,1993 Gives detailed directions patterns ideas and reproducibles for making posters containers bulletin boards and other teaching aids for use in a theme based classroom

Classroom Connections Philip C. Abrami,1995 Cooperative Learning and the Collaborative School Ronald S. Brandt,1991 Cooperation in the classroom counteracts well established routines and values that nearly all adults and many educators take for granted Education remains a fiercely competitive enterprise and individualistic notions of professionalism predominate Despite the continued importance of independence initiative and personal achievement today s schools are experimenting with consideration sharing collegiality and commitment to group goals This volume contains readings from recent editions of Educational Leadership on cooperative learning and collaborative schools beginning with Robert Slavin s introduction and Ronald Brandt s insistence that cooperation is not un American The articles in the second section discuss various cooperative learning models including Team Assisted Individuation Cooperative integrated Reading and Composition and Group Investigation The third section is devoted to implementation of cooperative learning and the fourth section highlights the idea of schools as caring communities developed through group work The sixth section provides ideas on how to get started and the seventh section summarizes controversies among various researchers The final section presents articles on the collaborative school focusing on developing teacher collegiality cooperative professional development and school improvement efforts The volume ends with an extensive annotated bibliography divided into nine parts MLH
