Convergence Or Divergence Comparing Recent Social Trends In Industrial Societies:

Convergence or Divergence? Simon Langlois, Theodore Caplow, 1994-11-16 Trends in fertility decline intergenerational relations religion and secularization ecological movements employment and labour market changes personal authority and social conflict are examined This analysis shows an unmistakable convergence of social trends except in the domain of religion But when the interconnection of these trends within each national society is examined unexpected divergences are revealed There are parallel trends in demography organization of production national institutions social practices and life style and divergent trends in social inequality social movements and local institutions Barriers between social classes have eroded and something that might be called multidimensional stratification has emerged the diminution of violence in social conflicts implies an increasing volume of negotiation and all forms of personal authority have been weakened The transformation of the family structure is no doubt one of the most important changes in western civilization The cross national analyses of recent social trends help us to assess both convergence and divergence and to identify emergent singularities Does convergence of trends mean these societies face a common destiny With respect to trends so strong that they act as exogenous variables the answer is yes However with respect to the responses those trends elicit in the context of a particular society the answer is no Massive convergence of trends does not mean that societies face a uniform future

Convergence Or Divergence?, 1994 Convergence Or Divergence? Simon Langlois, Theodore Caplow, Henri Mendras, Wolfgang Glatzer, 1994 Changing Structures of Inequality Yannick Lemel, Heinz-Herbert Noll, 2002 The international sociological community has engaged in a controversial discussion on social inequality This title offers a deed analysis of country specific research traditions in the fields of class analysis and social stratification revealing important conceptual differences that have consequences for the diagnoses The Family Koen Matthijs, Ann van den Troost, 1998 After an academic career of 35 years most of which as ordinary professor Prof Dr Wilfried Dumon became professor emeritus at the end of September 1998 Together with a few others he was present at the cradle of Leuven sociology in the middle of the 1960s He participated in the construction of the necessary administrative logistic and academic structures as well as in the establishment of the research and educational domains in which Leuven sociology would specialize Very soon there developed a unique sociological perspective that is known as the Leuven triangle the integration of sociological theory methodology and social policy Within this framework the name of Wilfried Dumon is inextricably bound up with the sociology of the family or more broadly with the family sciences Without doubt he was the standard bearer of Flemish family sociology Hundreds of students profited from his unusual others would use much more colorful adjectives form of teaching in both form and content He was directly or indirectly responsible for virtually all the courses in Leuven family sociology also outside of his own Faculty And those whose licentiate or doctoral thesis dealt with a theme that was in any way related to subjects like marriage the family or sexuality were invariably confronted with his critical analysis and unique vocabulary Wilfried

Dumon also took on many policy positions such as editorial secretary or editor in chief of journals director or manager of all sorts of institutions and member director or chairman of several commissions and associations And all of this both nationally and internationally Indeed Wilfried Dumon had and has an extensive and tightly knit network of warm academic contacts the world over On the occasion of his retirement a liber amicorum has been compiled With this initiative the Faculty of Social Sciences the Department of Sociology and the Section for the Sociology of the Family the Population and Health Care wish to express deep appreciation and gratitude for an inspirer and standard bearer More than 20 scholars wish to give an international salute to a highly valued colleague

Observation of Social Change Isabelle Renschler, Dominique Joye, 2003 The Tocqueville Review Tocqueville Society, 1995 Bulgaria 1960-1995 Nikolaï Genov, Anna Krūsteva, 1999

Social Indicators Network News, 1995 Regions Apart Edward G. Grabb, James E. Curtis, 2004 Provides a valuable comparison between Canada and the United States It looks at the theoretical and historical underpinnings of myths about Canada and the United States and uses research to examine the validity of these myths Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall, 2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Sociology Jean Stockard, 2000 SOCIOLOGY DISCOVERING SOCIETY 2nd provides comprehensive coverage of sociology in an affordable paperback format With research studies in every chapter and boxes that portray sociologists at work it will especially appeal to sociology professors who value a quantitative research methodology oriented approach Instead of presenting every possible theory for each issue Stockard's streamlined approach pulls in theories only when they appropriately relate to the issue at hand This integrated approach produces a text that reads more smoothly than the overly encyclopedic heavily interrupted narratives of other texts Ageing: Key dimensions Susan A. McDaniel, 2008

Dimensions of Human Behavior Elizabeth D. Hutchison, Elizabeth Hutchison, 1999 The Changing Life Course is the second volume of the two part work Dimensions of Human Behavior This volume covers the same topics as the first but is arranged longitudinally and emphasizes the adjustments which social services professionals must make in their practice with clients at different stages of the life course An Instructor's Resource Guide for both volumes is available to adopters who request it on their departments or organizations letterhead Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Canadian Books in

Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Social Mobility in Industrial Societies Lucienne Portocarero, 1987 Contiene tres estudios comparativos de la movilidad social de la mujer en Francia y en Suecia analizando el impacto de las diferentes estructuras ocupacionales sobre todo de la división del trabajo por sexos y el grado de discriminación del mercado de trabajo

International Encyclopedia of the Social & Behavioral Sciences Neil J. Smelser, Paul B. Baltes, 2001 The largest work ever published in the social and behavioural sciences It contains 4000 signed articles 15 million words of text 90 000 bibliographic
