From early youth Dr. Hislop had been engaged in a search for spiritual truth. As a young man, 18 years of age, his discipline began with the study of Theosophy during a year's residence in Tahiti and continued while living for two years with Mr. J. In the years following Dr. Hislop went to India in 1958 to establish a meditation academy in Uttar Kashi, the Valley of the Saints, in the Himalayan mountains close to the Tibetan border, on behalf of Mahesh Yogi. Thereafter for the following ten years he and his wife Victoria, made annual trips to Burma to practise Vipassana meditation with the guidance of Thay Sayu U Ba Khin. Dr. Hislop met Sri Sathya Sai Baba in January 1968, and was the Co-ordinator of the Sathya Sai Baba Organisation of the U.S.A. Hislop and his wife made their home in Baja California, Mexico.

Hislop, 1979 Baba is Here Graciela Busto, 1998 Baba is Here is an extraordinary example of Sai Baba's omnipresence. The author shows us that the Lord is accessible to anyone who asks Him for guidance and He lovingly answers every question. This book gives a first-hand account of Graciela Busto's conversations with the Lord. These inner dialogues deal with the underlying nature of the universe and man's relationship to God. They explore the period prior to creation and consciousness, providing detailed information about the purpose of life itself. Graciela Busto's narrative helps us to understand that we are all divine. Through these dialogues, the author explores the very substance and intention of truth, love, and existence. We find here answers to questions such as: If God is omnipresent, why is it necessary to invoke Him? Is faith a necessary condition for realization? Is love indispensable in order to gain wisdom? Why doesn't God always respond to our prayers? How can you tell when someone has reached enlightenment? Why have we forgotten our origin? Other topics are discussed, such as free will, pride, greed, surrender, lust, and forgiveness.

The Hagiographer and the Avatar Antonio Rigopoulos, 2021-04-01 In this biographical study, Antonio Rigopoulos explores the fundamental role of a hagiographer within a charismatic religious movement. In this case, the postsectarian cosmopolitan community of the Indian guru Sathya Sai Baba. The guru's hagiographer, Narayan Kasturi, was already a distinguished litterateur by the time he first met Sathya Sai Baba in 1948. The two lived together at the guru's hermitage more or less continuously from 1954 up until Kasturi's death in 1987. Despite Kasturi's influential hagiography, Sathyaam Sivam Sundaram, little scholarly attention has been paid to the hagiographer himself and his importance to the movement. In detailing Kasturi's relationship to Sathya Sai Baba, Rigopoulos emphasizes that the hagiographer's work was not subordinate to the guru's definition of himself. Rather, his discourses with the holy man had a reciprocal and reinforcing influence, resulting in the construction of a unified canon. Furthermore, Kasturi's ability to perform a variety of functions as a hagiographer successfully mediated the relationship between the guru and his followers. Drawing on years of research on the movement, as well as interviews with Kasturi himself, this book deepens our understanding of this important pan-Indian figure and his charismatic religious movement.

Conversations avec Sathya Sai Baba Sathya Sai Baba, John S. Hislop, 1996 A Hindu-Jewish Conversation Rachel Fell McDermott, Daniel F. Polish, 2024-02-15 A Hindu Jewish Conversation: Root Traditions in Dialogue is a historical, theological, and phenomenological engagement of the Hindu and Jewish traditions, two root traditions that give rise to other, in some ways very different, types of religious traditions. Rachel Fell McDermott and

Daniel F Polish explore conceptions of the divine which are frequently cited as the most serious obstacle to a serious theological engagement between the two traditions differences in attitude towards heroes saints and holy people the religious resources and challenges experienced by Hindu and Jewish women what can be learned about Hindu and Jewish spiritual outpouring by comparing Hindu devotional poetry and the Book of Psalms the ways in which the two traditions address the fraught question of theodicy or why bad things happen to good people the status of the land and nationalist claims on it and the uncomfortable question of caste and its possible social parallels in the Jewish tradition The authors weave considerations of these topics into an ongoing conversation that offers students of both traditions new ways of thinking both about their intersections and about the history of religion in general A coda explores these same issues by recounting an actual series of discussions convened between Hindu and Jewish practitioners Singapore, Spirituality, and the Space of the State Joanne Punzo Waghorne,2020-03-19 This book examines spirituality in Singapore showing how important the city state is for understanding contemporary global configurations of urban space religion and spirituality Joanne Punzo Waghorne highlights how the formal religious spaces temples churches and mosques have been confined to allotted sites on the map of Singapore whereas various spiritual organizations particularly of Hindu origins and headed by a guru still continue to operate as societies classified by the government with other clubs These unconventional religiosities are not confined but ironically make their own places meeting in ostensive secular venues high rise flats malls businesses and community centers thus existing in the overall space of religion commerce and the state The book argues that State of Singapore also operates between the secular and the religious constructing an overarching spatial regime that both accommodates and yet rivals the alternate spheres that spiritual movements construct under its umbrella Both spatial configurations challenge the presumed relationships between myth and reality religion and commerce the ethereal and the concrete the sacred and the secular on the levels of self community and polity Singapore now deemed a model for urban development in Asia also offers an understanding of a new post secularity and perhaps reveals where the urbanized world is headed Conversaciones con Bhagavan Sri Sathya Sai Baba John S. What is enlightenment Is there a life after death Never before have these questions been tackled with such simplicity candour and clarity In these unpublished early conversations with friends 1967 71 U G discusses in detail his search for the truth and how he underwent radical biological changes in 1967 Preferring to call it the natural state over enlightenment he insists that whatever transformation he has undergone is within the structure of the human body and not in the mind at all It is the natural state of being that sages like the Buddha Jesus and in modern times Sri Ramana stepped into And U G never tires of pointing out that this is the way you stripped of the machinations of thought are also functioning
