Convict And The Colonel:

The Convict and the Colonel Richard Price, 2006 An election day massacre in colonial Martinique A mad artist who lives in a cave A satirical wooden bust of a white colonel The artist's banishment to the Devil's Island penal colony for impertinence And a young anthropologist who arrives in Martinique in 1962 on the eve of massive modernization In a stunning combination of scholarship and storytelling the award winning anthropologist Richard Price draws on long term ethnography archival documents cinema and street theater and Caribbean fiction and poetry to explore how one generation's powerful historical metaphors could so quickly become the next generation's trivial pursuit how memories of oppression inequality and struggle could so easily become replaced by nostalgia complicity and celebration A superb callaloo of a book Richard Price has a remarkable grasp of the literatures of the Caribbean and draws on this resource to explore the underlying insanity of the colonial experience as well as the bewildering complexities of the postcolonial world where memory is erased or invented according to the demands of a market modernity George Lamming author of The Pleasures of Exile By beautifully crafting elements as disparate as biographical data sociological studies literary sources and archival documents Richard Price's research is more fascinating than a piece of fiction Maryse Condé author of I, Tituba Black Witch of Salem Price does it again Mixing eras genres and voices he carries the reader through the contradictory streams of historical consciousness in the Caribbean island of Martinique The result is as complex and as enticing as the sea it evokes Michel Rolph Trouillot author of Silencing the Past Filled with insights that are at once theoretical methodological and ethnographic The Convict and the Colonel is required reading for anyone interested in colonialism memory and contemporary Caribbean societies Jennifer Cole American Ethnologist The convict colonel Fortuné Du Boisgobey, 1904 The Convict Colonel Fortuné Hippolyte Auguste Du Boisgobey, 18?? Hearing on U.S. Army Retraining Brigade United States.
